
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research is an endless process for acquisition of knowledge, which never achieves milestones merely by an individual effort. The nest of good research is always woven with endless endeavors put by scientists together. The value of information provided by such self-driven peoples is always of high importance. At present occasion, when I am ready to accept the challenges in the field of pharmaceutical research, I sense that the present exercise for investigation would not have touched objectives without blessing and guidance from dedicated researchers and well wishers.

The long cherished dream has come true. I am on the verge of getting my Ph.D. degree and this is the time to bid my deep sense of gratitude from bottom of my heart and indebt to my guide, Dr. Niyati S. Acharya, Dept. of Pharmacognosy, Institute of Pharmacy, Nirma University for her invaluable guidance, boundless enthusiasm and constant inspiration through out the course of the study. I express profound indebtness and gratefulness to my RPC members Dr. Rakesh Raval, and Dr. Sunita Goswami for their valuable suggestion, constructing criticism and the unending inspiration that have given a shape to this work. Their active guidance helped me to develop skills and insight in research and scientific presentation. I am equally indebt to Prof. Manjunath D. Ghate, Director and Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy, Nirma University for providing such an opportunity to complete my project work. I am very much thankful to Prof. Vimal Kumar, Head of the Dept. of Pharmacognosy, Nirma University for providing such an opportunity.

I express deepest gratitude to Dr. Sanjeev Acharya, Dept. of Pharmacognosy, Nirma University for his moral and scientific support. I also acknowledge all the faculty members, Institute of Pharamcy, Nirma University for their kind support.

I owe special sense of gratitude to Dr. Lal Hingorani, Director of Pharmanza Herbal Pvt. Ltd. for his advice, supervision, crucial contribution and valuable suggestions during this course of investigation. I am extraordinarily fortunate to have this support to complete this venture. I am thankful to Pharmanza Herbal staff (R & D and QC) for their cooperation.

I would like to acknowledge Rajkot University, for their assistance in obtaining NMR data, Oxygen Health Care for obtaining Mass data and I am thankful to Dr. Vipul Patel for his support in cell line study.

I am grateful to Dr. Lalitha Poluru, Mr. Sandip Patel librarian and nonteaching staff members for their support during this research work.

I am thankful to Dr. D. B. Meshram, Principal and all staff members of Pioneer Pharmacy Degree College, Vadodara for their co-operation during this work. I acknowledge the support of my colleagues and my friends Priyal Barai, Jagruti Patel, Jaivik Patel, Dipti Desai, Dhara Patel, Rasik Ravani, Samip Shah, Nisha Parikh and all my cousins Mitul, Amit, Ketul, Nirali, Kruti, Ishan, Monali, Jyoti didi for their company and encouragement.

I convey my sense of gratitude to Mr. Shantaram Pawar, DGM, FRD, Mr. Shrikant Patil, Manager, FRD, Mr. Vinod Rahangdale and FRD, ARD, HR Team of R&D centre, Hetero Healthcare Ltd., Hyderabad; for their kind cooperation and appreciation.

I would like to thank to the members of Accuprec Research Pvt. Ltd., Ahmedabad and local CPCSCEA who had approved and permitted my project work on animals and I do remember with due compassion those innocent speechless rats for their selfless sacrifice for my cause. I pray to God their souls to rest in peace.

These pages are incomplete without thanking my family members their presence itself instilled confidence and lifted the sagging spirit.

From the innermost core of my heart, I would like to bid special thanks to my beloved daughter Vaishvi Shah, my better half Mr. Ripal Shah beloved mother in law Mrs. Usha Shah and father in law Mr. Girish B. Shah for their immense love, care and moral support. I express my highest gratitude to my beloved father Mr. Milan D. Shah, mother Mrs. Niru Shah and brother Dr. Utkarsh Shah and bhabhi Dr. Vaibhavi Shah for being supportive and caring siblings. I am very much thankful to my uncle Mr. Nitesh D. Shah, auntie Mrs. Chetna Shah, Mrs. Anjana Shah, Mrs. Nalini Shah. I owe to my Grandmother Jasu baa for her love, care and motivation. It was successful with appreciate endless love, care, patience and faith shown on me encouragement and patience that I have been able to come so far. Their confidence in me inspired me to work harder and harder. It is hard to put in words, in its real sense, apart from the dedication shown in my research work. I am indebted to my all dear and near ones, who have contributed, directly or indirectly, in completion of my work.

Last but not the least, I offer the flowers of gratitude to the Almighty God who has been the source of strength throughout my life.

Thank you all for your insights, guidance and support!
