

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of my Ph.D. thesis has been a long journey. Pursuing Ph.D. is just like climbing a steep peak, one step at a time, accompanied with trust, hardship and encouragement by many on the way.

First of all, I would like to give my sincere and deepest thanks to my advisor, Dr. Rajesh Verma, for his encouragement in my research and for aiding me to grow as a social science researcher. I have learned a lot from Dr. Rajesh Verma and without his support, I could not have completed my Ph.D. thesis successfully. He has always spared his valuable time to listen to me patiently and has always guided me in the right direction.

This journey would not have been started without the inspiration provided by my grandfather, Shri. Chaman Lal Sunder. Words would fail to describe the greatness of my grandfather, who stood behind me like a wall and provided me with the best of the facilities that any child can have. My mother, Neelam Sharma and wife, Megha Sharma have always stood by my side and provided me with the best of the support whenever required.

Special thanks to Dr. Sanjay Modi, Dr. Sandeep Vij, Dr. Girish Taneja and Mr. Rohit Dhand, who helped me with the validity checks of the research instrument. I am grateful to Mr. Neel Deshpande and Mr. Ashish Pandey, who helped me with the necessary arrangements for conducting focus groups. I also appreciate the advice of Dr. Vishal Sareen for his critical comments, which enabled me to make necessary improvements.

I would like to convey my sincere thanks to Lovely Professional University for offering all the necessary support required to concentrate on my research.

I would like to thank all people who have offered me time and help when I collected data required for the thesis.
