APPENDIX

Pre-test and Post-test answer scripts.
Instructions

Answer all the questions.
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q1. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example

I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
   He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
   The boys do not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
   Arun does not travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
   Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here everyday.
   He does not come here everyday.

6. My friends are good singers.
   My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
   They do not sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
   Anil did not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
   The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
    The child has not been crying.
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:

Example
He is a doctor
Is he a doctor?

That is Gopal's sister.
Is that Gopal’s sister?

Gopal rides very fast.
Can Gopal ride very fast?

He had an accident.
Had he an accident?

He broke his arm.
Did he break his arm?

He is in the hospital.
Is he in the hospital?

His friends go to the hospital everyday.
Do his friends go to the hospital everyday?

The doctor has bandaged his arm.
Has the doctor bandaged his arm?

The doctor gives him injections everyday.
Does the doctor give him injections everyday?

He had a bad pain in the arm.
Did he have a bad pain in the arm?

He has been suffering badly.
Has he been suffering badly?

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:

Example
Krishna brought the chalk
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
Where does he live?

He came here this morning.
When did he come here?

Lila was reading a story.
What was she reading?
Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what is the Principal's name

2. A to B: Where is the post office?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know where is the post office

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: A told me in the morning: Ravi is taking his exercises.

4. A to B: How does this machine work?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to find out how does this machine work

5. A to B: How did you come here?
   C to B: . . . . . . ?
   B: A wants to know . . . . . .

6. A to B: Where has your son studied last year?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.

7. A to B: When does your daughter come back home in the evening?
   C to B: And did so. A wants to find out
   B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back home in the evening.
One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

Suresh, Ganesh is crying for his beautiful red ball. He thought of a plan.

(10 marks)
INSTRUCTIONS
Answer all the questions
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q. 1. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls do not sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
   She does not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good foot ball players.
   My friends are not good foot ball players.

7. They play well.
   They do not play well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
    The woman has not been cleaning the room.
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.
Is she a teacher?

1. That is Amitabh's brother.
   Is that Amitabh's brother?

2. Amitabh teaches very well.
   How does he teach?

3. He taught you in class VIII.
   Did he teach you in class VIII?

4. He left the school last year.
   Did he leave the school last year?

5. He is in Madras now.
   Is he in Madras now?

6. He comes here once every month.
   Does he come here once every month?

7. He has passed the examination.
   Has he passed the examination?

8. His friends like him very much.
   Do his friends like him very much?

9. He married a girl from Madras.
   Did he marry a girl from Madras?

10. He has been looking for a house.
    Has he been looking for a house?

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.
Who broke the glass?

Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
Where does Mr. Venkatesh work?

He came here this morning.
When did he come?

Kiran was writing a letter.
What was Kiran writing?
Lila has left the job, because she is getting married.

8. The girl has been sitting in the garden.

9. The boy found the pen on the desk.

10. He comes home at 6 o'clock.

11. The puppies hide in the dust-bin.

12. The girls play hide and seek.

13. The baby cries when it is hungry.

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where is the railway station?

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know when is my turn.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: A said the Ramana is reading his lessons.

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to know why does this child cry in the class.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wants to know what did D eat for lunch.

6. A to B: Where did your brother worked last year?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: When did your sister leaves home in the mornings?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in the mornings.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live." So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

---

The story continued as follows: (Write your own version here).

---

(10 marks)
Q.I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
   He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
   The boys could not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
   Arun cannot travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
   Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here every day.
   He does not come here every day.

6. My friends are good singers.
   My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
   They cannot sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
   Anil could not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
   The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
    The child had not been crying.
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

He is a doctor
Is he a doctor?

That is Gopal's sister.
Is she Gopal's sister?

Gopal rides very fast.
Is Gopal rides very fast?

He had an accident.
Is he had an accident?

He broke his arm.
Is he broke his arm?

He is in the hospital.
Is he in the hospital?

His friends go to the hospital everyday.
Is his friends go to the hospital everyday?

The doctor has bandaged his arm.
Is the doctor has bandaged his arm?

The doctor gives him injections everyday.
Is the doctor gave him injections everyday?

He had a bad pain in the arm.
Is he had a bad pain in his arm?

He has been suffering badly.
Is he suffering badly?

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Krishna brought the chalk
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras
Where does Mr Patel lives?

He came here this morning.
When did he come here?

Lila was reading a story.
What was Lila reading?
Rita has gone home, because she is ill.
The boy has been hiding in the dust-bin.
The servant found the watch on the table.
She leaves home at 8 o'clock.
The children play on the lawns.
The puppies run in the garden.
The kitten drinks milk.

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B : What is the Principal's name?
   C to B : What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what is The principal's name.

2. A to B : Where is the post office?
   C to B : What does A want to know?
   B: A want to know where is the post office.

3. A to B : (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B : (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: A tell you in the morning, Ravi is taking his exercises.

4. A to B : How does this machine work?
   C to B : What did A want to find out?
   B: A want to find out how the machine work.

5. A to B : How did you come here?
   C to B : I want to know
   B: A wants to know how did you come here.

6. A to B : My son studied last year.
   C to B : What does A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.

7. A to B : My daughter comes back home in the evening.
   C to B : What does A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back.
One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

At the sight of Ganesh crying, Suresh thought of a plan. He saw the monkey where it was sitting on the stem. The stem is very high. Suresh brought a little red ball and threw through the ball on the Ganesh. Similarly, the monkey through that ball on Ganesh. When the monkey through that ball on Ganesh, Suresh caught that ball and returned the ball to little Ganesh.
Q. I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
The girls do not sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
She does not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good football players.
My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
They do not play well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
The woman has not been cleaning the room.
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.

Is she a teacher?

1. That is Amitabh's brother.
   Is...that...Amitabh's? brother?

2. Amitabh teaches very well.
   Does Amitabh...teach...very...well?

3. He taught you in class VIII.
   Did he...tell you...in class VIII?

4. He left the school last year.
   Did...he...leave...?The school last year?

5. He is in Madras now.
   Is...he...in...another...now?

6. He comes here once every month.
   Does he...come...?here...once...every...month?

7. He has passed the examination.
   Has...he...passed...the...?examination?

8. His friends like him very much.
   Do...his...friends...like? him? very...much?

9. He married a girl from Madras.
   Did...he...marry...a...girl...from...Madras?

10. He has been looking for a house.
    Has he...has...been...look...for...house.

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.

Who broke the glass?

1. Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
   Where...does...Mr...Venkatesh...work?

2. He came here this morning.
   When...did...he...come...here?

3. Kiran was writing a letter.
   What...was...Kiran...writing...?
Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where the railway station is.

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know when my turn.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: A said... in the morning. He was about

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to know why this child cry.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: A wants to know what I eat.
   B: A wants to know what you ate for lunch.

6. A to B: Did your brother worked last year?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: What does your sister leaves home in the mornings?
   C to B: What time does your sister leaves home in the mornings.
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in the mornings.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live". So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

When the lion got caught in the hunter's net, the little mouse came to know that. Little mouse saw the lion with unhappy face. Mouse put that net with great trouble on this.

And got the lion. Those. The lion got hungry. Hungry and wrote the net at once. The little mouse told the lion please eat me. But lion told I don't want to eat you and told the little mouse to go. (10 marks)
INSTRUCTIONS
Answer all the questions
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q. 1. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls do not sing well.

X. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

X. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

X. She dances everyday.
   She did not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good football players.
   My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
    They do not play well.

X. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run fast.

X. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump did not stop working.

X. The woman has been cleaning the room.
   The woman is not cleaning the room.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.

Is she a teacher?

1. That is Amitabh's brother.
   Is this Amitabh's brother?

2. Amitabh teaches very well.
   Does Amitabh teach very well?

3. He taught you in class VIII.
   Who taught you in class VIII?

4. He left the school last year.
   Who left the school last year?

5. He is in Madras now.
   Who is in Madras now?

6. He comes here once every month.
   Who comes here once every month?

7. He has passed the examination.
   Who has passed the examination?

8. His friends like him very much.
   Who likes him very much?

9. He married a girl from Madras.
   Who married a girl from Madras?

10. He has been looking for a house.
    Who is looking for a house?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.

Who broke the glass?

1. Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
   Where does Mr. Venkatesh work?

2. He came here this morning.
   When did he come?

3. Kiran was writing a letter.
   What was Kiran writing?
Lila has left the job, because she is getting married.

The girl has been sitting in the garden.

The boy found the pen on the desk.

He comes home at 6 o'clock.

The puppies hide in the dust-bin.

The girls play hide and seek.

The baby cries when it is hungry.

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where the railway station?

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: When... is... my... turn?....

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: In the morning, A said that, "Ramana, read his lessons."

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: He wants to know why this child cries in the class.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wants to know what... did... he... eat... for lunch?

6. A to B: Where did your brother work last year?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: When your sister leaves home in the morning?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in the mornings.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live". So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

When the lion got caught in a hunter's net, because he roared in great anguish, the little mouse heard the roaring sounds of the lion. The mouse came out of his hole and saw the lion caught in the net. Where the lion said "my dear mouse please save me", and mouse saved the lion from cutting the net with her teeth, and lion shamed happily thanking the mouse.

* * *

1mt/31.8.
ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST - I

Name: D.V. NAYAK, RAO, Reg no. - 6
Class: M.P.C., ...... "C" GROUP

Instructions

Answer all the questions.

Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q.I. Change the following into negative sentences:-

Example

I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
   He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
   The boys do not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
   Arun does not travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
   Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here everyday.
   He does not come here everyday.

6. My friends are good singers.
   My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
   They do not sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
   Anil did not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
   The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
    The child has not been crying.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example
He is a doctor
Is he a doctor?

That is Gopal's sister.
Is that Gopal's sister?

Gopal rides very fast.
Did Gopal ride very fast?

He had an accident.
Did he have an accident?

He broke his arm.
Did he break his arm?

His friends go to the hospital every day.
Do his friends go to the hospital every day?

The doctor has bandaged his arm.
Did the doctor bandage his arm?

The doctor gives him injections every day.
Does the doctor give him injections every day?

He had a bad pain in the arm.
Did he have a bad pain in the arm?

He has been suffering badly.
Did he . . . . . . . . ?

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example
Krishna brought the chalk
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
Where does Mr. Patel live?

He came here this morning.
When did he come?

Lila was reading a story.
What is Lila reading?
Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
C to B: What is A asking?
B: A is asking what is the Principal's name?

2. A to B: Where is the post office?
C to B: What does A want to know?
B: A wants to know where the post office is.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
B: A told me in the morning that Ravi is taking his exercises.

4. A to B: How does this machine work?
C to B: What did A want to find out?
B: A wants to know how this machine work?

5. A to B: How did you come here?
C to B: What does A want to know?
B: A wants to know how I came here.

6. A to B: Where did your son study last year?
C to B: What did A want to know?
B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.

7. A to B: When does your daughter come back home in the evening?
C to B: What does A want to know?
B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

Usually monkeys do as like man. If we throw through a stone they also throw anything towards us. Suresh picked when Suresh's brother started crying for ball, Suresh picked up some stones on the ground, and started throwing the stones towards monkey. The monkey became angry and monkey also wants to beat Suresh. It threw the ball which is in her hands, towards Suresh. ***

Suresh gave that red ball to his brother Ganesh. He became very happy.
ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST - I

Name: Ayed, Shah Faizuddin (Roll No: 09)
Class: Ist Year, II Year

Time: 1 hour
Marks: 50

Instructions

Answer all the questions.
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q.I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
   He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
   The boys do not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
   Arun does not travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
   Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here everyday.
   He does not come here everyday.

6. My friends are good singers.
   My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
   They do not sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
   Anil did not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
   The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
    The child did not cry.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

He is a doctor.
Is he a doctor?

1.
   That is Gopal's sister.
   Is she Gopal's sister?

2.
   Gopal rides very fast.
   Does Gopal ride very fast?

3.
   He had an accident.
   Did he have an accident?

4.
   He broke his arm.
   Did he break his arm?

5.
   He is in the hospital.
   Is he in the hospital?

6.
   His friends go to the hospital everyday.
   Do his friends go to the hospital everyday?

7.
   The doctor has bandaged his arm.
   Has the doctor bandaged his arm?

8.
   The doctor gives him injections every day.
   Does the doctor give him injections every day?

9.
   He had a bad pain in the arm.
   Did he have a bad pain in the arm?

10. He has been suffering badly.
    Has he been suffering badly?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Krishna brought the chalk.
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
Where does Mr. Patel live?

He came here this morning.
When did he come here?

Lila was reading a story.
What was Lila reading?
1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what is the Principal's name.

2. A to B: Where is the post office?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A is asking where is the post office.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: A told me morning Ravi is taking his exercises.

4. A to B: How does this machine work?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out how this machine works.

5. A to B: How did you come here?
   C to B: What A is asking...
   B: A wants to know how did A come here.

6. A to B: Where your son studied last year.
   C to B: What A is asking about your children.
   B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.

7. A to B: What time your daughter come back home?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back.
One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

I think Suresh plan is as follows:

8 If the bombana thought to monkey the monkey caught the bombana and the ball is fall in the ground so they found a ball.
INSTRUCTIONS

Answer all the questions
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q. I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls do not sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
   She does not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good football players.
   My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
   They do not play well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
    The woman has not been cleaning the room.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:—

Example
She is a teacher.
Is she a teacher?

1. That is Amitabh's brother.
   Is that Amitabh's brother?

2. Amitabh teaches very well.
   Does Amitabh teach very well?

3. He taught you in class VIII.
   Did he taught you in class VIII?

4. He left the school last year.
   Did he leave the school last year?

5. He is in Madras now.
   Is he in Madras now?

6. He comes here once every month.
   Does he come here once every month?

7. He has passed the examination.
   Did he pass the examination?

8. His friends like him very much.
   Do his friends like him very much?

9. He married a girl from Madras.
   Did he marry a girl from Madras?

10. He has been looking for a house.
    Has he has been looking for a house?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:—

Example
Sarita broke the glass.
Who broke the glass?

1. Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
   Where did Mr. Venkatesh work?

2. He came here this morning.
   Why did he come here?

3. Kiran was writing a letter.
   What was Kiran doing?
Lila has left the job, because she is getting married.
Why, why has Lila left the job...

The girl has been sitting in the garden.
Whose... that girl has been sitting...

The boy found the pen on the desk.
Where did the boy find the pen...

He comes home at 6 o'clock.
What a time he comes home?

The puppies hide in the dust-bin.
Where are the puppies hiding...

The girls play hide and seek.
Where do the girls play...

The baby cries when it is hungry.
Why does the baby cry...

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where the railway station is.

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know when it is your turn.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: A said that Ramana is reading his lessons.

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to find out why the child crying in the class.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to know what lunch...

6. A to B: Where is your brother working last year?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: At what time... leaves home in
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live". So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

One day the mouse saw the lion who is caught in a hunter's net. So the mouse thought of one trick that the net cut the net and the lion is come out. So the mouse go to the lion and tell him to go.
Instructions

Answer all the questions.
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q.I. Change the following into negative sentences:—

Example
I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
   He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
   The boys did not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
   Arun did not travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
   Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here everyday.
   He will not come everyday.

6. My friends are good singers.
   My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
   They did not sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
   Anil did not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
   The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
    The child had not been crying.
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:

Example
He is a doctor.
Is he a doctor?

That is Gopal's sister.
Is she Gopal's sister?

Gopal rides very fast.
Did Gopal ride very fast?

He had an accident.
Did he meet an accident?

He broke his arm.
Did he break his arm?

He is in the hospital.
Is he in the hospital?

His friends go to the hospital everyday.
Do his friends go to the hospital everyday?

The doctor has bandaged his arm.
Has the doctor bandaged his arm?

The doctor gives him injections everyday.
Does the doctor give him injections everyday?

He had a bad pain in the arm.
Did he have a bad pain in the arm?

He has been suffering badly.
Has he been suffering badly?

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:

Example
Krishna brought the chalk.
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
Who lives in Madras?

He came here this morning.
Who came here this morning?

Lila was reading a story.
Who was reading a story?
Rita has gone home, because she is ill.
The boy has been hiding in the dust-bin.
The servant found the watch on the table.
She leaves home at 8 o'clock.
The children play in the lawns.
The puppies run in the garden.
The kitten drinks milk.

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what is the name of Principal.

2. A to B: Where is the post office?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: He wants to know post office.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: A told that Ravi was taken his exercises.

4. A to B: How does this machine work?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out how did the machine work.

5. A to B: How did you come here?
   C to B: What he wants to know?
   B: A wants to know how I come here.

6. A to B: Where is your son studied last year?
   C to B: He wants to know where your son studied last year.
   B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.

7. A to B: When is your daughter came back home in the evening?
   C to B: He wants to find out when my daughter comes back over here.
   B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back over here.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

Firstly Suresh asked the monkey to give him his brother's ball. Then Suresh thought that I should give him banana then he can give. He did, like that only and he was successful in his plan.

(10 marks)
Q. I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls do not sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
   She does not dance every day.

6. My friends are good football players.
   My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
   They do not play well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
    The woman has not been cleaning the room.
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.
Is she a teacher?

1. That is Amitabh's brother.
   Is that Amitabh's brother?

2. Amitabh teaches very well.
   Does Amitabh teach very well?

3. He taught you in class VIII.
   Did he teach you in class VIII?

4. He left the school last year.
   Did he leave the school last year?

5. He is in Madras now.
   Is he in Madras now?

6. He comes here once every month.
   Does he come here once every month?

7. He has passed the examination.
   Has he passed the examination?

8. His friends like him very much.
   Do his friends like him very much?

9. He married a girl from Madras.
   Did he marry a girl from Madras?

10. He has been looking for a house.
    Has he been looking for a house?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.
Who broke the glass?

1. Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
   Where does Venkatesh work?

2. He came here this morning.
   When did he come here?

3. Kiran was writing a letter.
   What was Kiran writing?
1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where the railway station.

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: I wanted to know when I will be turning.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: A said in the morning did Ramana is reading his lesson.

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: I wanted to find out does this child cry in the class.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: What did A want to know...
   B: A wants to know what did you eat for lunch.

6. A to B: Where is your brother working?
   C to B: What does A want to know...
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: When is your sister leaves home in the morning?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in the morning.

8. A to B: How did the boy find the pen?
   C to B: What did the boy find the pen?

9. A to B: The girl was sitting in the garden.
   C to B: What did the girl sit?

10. A to B: The puppies hide in the dust-bin.
    C to B: What did the puppies hide?

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:-

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where the railway station.

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: I wanted to know when I will be turning.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: A said in the morning did Ramana is reading his lesson.

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: I wanted to find out does this child cry in the class.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: What did A want to know...
   B: A wants to know what did you eat for lunch.

6. A to B: Where is your brother working?
   C to B: What does A want to know...
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: When is your sister leaves home in the morning?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in the morning.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live". So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

When the little mouse got know about the lion, who got caught in a hunter's net, suddenly it rush to the lion. It think that when he was in trouble the lion helped me. Now I have to help the lion. It think, and it cuts the net then lion came out and thanked the mouse.
Q. I. Change the following into negative sentences:–

Example

He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   You are not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls don't sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
   She does not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good football players.
   My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
   They play not well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
    The woman has not been cleaning the room.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.
Is she a teacher?

That is Amitabh's brother.
Is that Amitabh's brother?

Amitabh teaches very well.
Does Amitabh teach very well?

Does Amitabh teach you very well.
Did he teach you in class VIII.

He taught you in class VIII.
Did he teach you in class VIII?

He left the school last year.
Has he left the school last year?

He has written a letter.
Has he written a letter?

He comes here once every month.
Does he come here once every month?

He has passed the examination.
Has he passed the examination?

His friends like him very much.
Do his friends like him very much?

He married a girl from Madras.
Has he married a girl from Madras?

He has been looking for a house.
Has he been looking for a house?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.
Who broke the glass?

Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
Who works in the post office?

He came here this morning.
Who came here this morning?

Kiran was writing a letter.
What was Kiran writing?
Q. IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where is the railway station?

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know when my turn.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the evening?
   B: He says in the morning Ramana was studying his lessons.

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: What did A want to find out why did it cry?

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch? (In the evening)
   C to B: What did A need to know?
   B: A needs to know what did you eat for lunch.

6. A to B: What did you eat for lunch? (In the evening)
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: What did your sister do last year?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in the mornings.
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live." So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

"A little mouse happened to see the lion in the net. He roared in great anguish. The little mouse helped the lion out of the net. The lion was thankful and let the little mouse go."

(10 marks)
ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST - I

Name: Syed Kaleemullah Hussaini
Class:
Roll No.: 12

Instructions

Answer all the questions.
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q.1. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
   He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
   The boys do not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
   Arun does not travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
   Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here everyday.
   He does not come here everyday.

6. My friends are good singers.
   My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
   They do not sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
   Anil did not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
   The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
    The child has not been crying.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example
He is a doctor
Is he a doctor?

1. That is Gopal's sister.
   Who brought the chalk?

2. Gopal rides very fast.
   Does Gopal ride very fast?

3. He had an accident.
   Did he have an accident?

4. He broke his arm.
   Did he break his arm?

5. He is in the hospital.
   Is he in the hospital?

6. His friends go to the hospital everyday.
   Does his friends go to the hospital everyday?

7. The doctor has bandaged his arm.
   Has the doctor bandaged his arm?

8. The doctor gives him injections everyday.
   Does the doctor give him injections everyday?

9. He had a bad pain in the arm.
   Did he have a bad pain in the arm?

10. He has been suffering badly.
    Has he been suffering badly?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example
Krishna brought the chalk
Who brought the chalk?

1. Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
   Where does Mr. Patel live?

2. He came here this morning.
   When did he come here?

3. Lila was reading a story.
   What was Lila reading?
4. Rita has gone home, because she is ill. Why did Rita have gone home?
5. The boy has been hiding in the dust-bin.
   Where the boy had been hiding?
6. The servant found the watch on the table.
   Where did the servant found the watch?
7. She leaves home at 8 o'clock.
   When does she leave home?
8. The children play in the lawns.
   Where do the children play?
9. The puppies run in the garden.
   Where do the puppies run?
10. The kitten drink milk.
    What does the kitten drink?

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:—

1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what the Principal's name
2. A to B: Where is the post office?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know where the post office
3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: A told me that Ravi is taking his exercises.
4. A to B: How does this machine work?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to know how this machine work.
5. A to B: How did you come here?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wants to know how I come here.
6. A to B: Where did your son study last year?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.
7. A to B: When does your daughter come back home?
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you about your daughter?
   B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back.
One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

Suresh knelt down and threw a small stone towards the monkey. The stone was thrown with such a speed and force that it hit the monkey. The monkey dropped the ball and ran away. Suresh ran after it and caught it. He was happy to get his ball back.

(10 marks)
Instructions

Answer all the questions.
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q.I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

He is a mechanic.
He is not a mechanic.

The boys work hard.
The boys do not work hard.

Arun travels by bus.
Arun does not travel by bus.

Ashok came here yesterday.
Ashok did not come here yesterday.

He comes here everyday.
He does not come here every day.

My friends are good singers.
My friends are not good singers.

They sing well.
They do not sing well.

Anil jumped very high.
Anil did not jump very high.

The team has won the match.
The team has not won the match.

The child has been crying.
The child has not been crying.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example
He is a doctor
Is he a doctor?

That is Gopal's sister.

Gopal rides very fast.

He had an accident.

He broke his arm.

He is in the hospital.

His friends go to the hospital everyday.

The doctor has bandaged his arm.

The doctor gives him injections everyday.

He had a bad pain in the arm.

He has been suffering badly.

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example
Krishna brought the chalk
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
Where did Mr. Patel live?

He came here this morning.
Why did he come?

Lila was reading a story.
What was Lila doing?
1. Rita has gone home, because she is ill.
2. The boy has been hiding in the dust-bin.
3. The servant found the watch on the table.
4. She leaves home at 8 o'clock.
5. The children play in the lawns.
6. The puppies run in the garden.
7. The kitten drinks milk.

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what the Principal's name.

2. A to B: Where is the post office?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: Where is the post office.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: Ravi is taking his morning.

4. A to B: How does this machine work?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: How does this machine work.

5. A to B: How did you come here?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wants to know.

6. A to B: Where my son studied last year?
   C to B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.

7. A to B: Where my daughter comes back to me in the evening?
   C to B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

A monkey was sitting on the tree and watching them play. The ball rolling and snatched it away. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

(10 marks)
Q. I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls do not sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
   She does not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good football players.
   My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
   They do not play well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
    The woman has not been cleaning the room.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.
Is she a teacher?

That is Amitab's brother.
Whose brother is that?

Amitabh teaches very well.
Does Amitabh teach very well?

He taught you in class VIII.
Did he teach you in class VIII?

He left the school last year.
Did he leave the school last year?

He is in Madras now.
Is he in Madras now?

He comes here once every month.
Does he come here once every month?

He has passed the examination.
Has he passed the examination?

His friends like him very much.
Do his friends like him very much?

He married a girl from Madras.
Did he marry a girl from Madras?

He has been looking for a house.
Has he been looking for a house?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.
Who broke the glass?

Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.
Where does Mr. Venkatesh work?
In the post office.

He came here this morning.
When did he came here this morning?

Kiran was writing a letter.
When did Kiran writing a letter?
Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: Where is the railway station?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking where is the railway station.

2. A to B: When is your turn?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know when my turn is.

3. A to B: (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B: I say that Ramana was reading his lessons in the morning.

4. A to B: Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wanted to find out why the child is crying in the class.

5. A to B: What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know ........................................

6. A to B: Did your brother work last year?
   C to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B: Where does your sister leave home in the morning?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to find out when my sister leaves home in
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live." So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

(10 marks)
Q. I. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example

He is a doctor.
He is not a doctor.

1. I am a student.
   I am not a student.

2. The girls sing well.
   The girls do not sing well.

3. Ramesh plays hockey.
   Ramesh does not play hockey.

4. Anita danced beautifully.
   Anita did not dance beautifully.

5. She dances everyday.
   She does not dance everyday.

6. My friends are good football players.
   My friends are not good football players.

7. They play well.
   They do not play well.

8. Sunita ran very fast.
   Sunita did not run very fast.

9. The pump has stopped working.
   The pump has not stopped working.

10. The woman has been cleaning the room.
    The woman has not been cleaning the room.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example

She is a teacher.

Is she a teacher?

1. That is Amitabh's brother.

Is he Amitabh's brother?

2. Amitabh teaches very well.

Does Amitabh teach very well?

3. He taught you in class VIII.

Did he teach you in class VIII?

4. He left the school last year.

Has he left the school last year?

5. He is in Madras now.

Is he in Madras now?

6. He comes here once every month.

Does he come here once every month?

7. He has passed the examination.

Has he passed the examination?

8. His friends like him very much.

Do his friends like him very much?

9. He married a girl from Madras.

Did he marry a girl from Madras?

10. He has been looking for a house.

Has he been looking for a house?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example

Sarita broke the glass.

Who broke the glass?

1. Mr. Venkatesh works in the post office.

Who works in the post office?

2. He came here this morning.

Whence did he come?

3. Kiran was writing a letter.

What was Kiran writing a letter?
Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:-

1. A to B : Where is the railway station?
   C to B : What is A asking?
   B : A is asking where the railway station is.

2. A to B : When is your turn?
   C to B : What does A want to know?
   B : A wants to know when my turn is.

3. A to B : (In the morning) Ramana is reading his lessons.
   C to B : (In the evening) What did A say to you in the morning?
   B : A said in the morning Ramana was reading his lessons.

4. A to B : Why does this child cry in the class?
   C to B : What did A want to find out?
   B : A wanted to find out why does the child cry in the class.

5. A to B : What did you eat for lunch?
   C to B : What did A want to know?
   B : A wants to know what did I eat for lunch.

6. A to B : Where did you brother work last year?
   C to B : What did A want to know?
   B : A wanted to know where my brother worked last year.

7. A to B : Why did you brother go to the evening?
   C to B : What did A want to know?
   B : A wants to find out when my sister leaves home.

(10 marks)
Q.V. The following is the first half of a story. Read it carefully.

Once a little mouse happened to run over a sleeping lion. The lion got angry and caught hold of the little mouse, and said he was going to kill him. The little mouse pleaded, trembling: "Please have mercy on me and let me go. I shall never forget your kindness as long as I live". So the lion had pity on him and let him go. The little mouse ran happily away after thanking the lion.

One day the lion got caught in a hunter's net. He roared in great anguish.

Now, imagine the rest of the story and write it out in your own words. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

The little mouse hiding inside the grass hands the lion and comes out of the cave. The lion bites and the little mouse asks the lion why are you screaming. The lion said I am trapped in this net.
please help me, little mouse said. All right, I will save the net, wrote my sharp teeth and saved you.
The lion was fair.

(10 marks)

* * *

1mt/31.8.
ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST - I

Name: Syed Khaja Nasiruddin
Class: Intermediate

Time: 1 hour
Marks: 50

Instructions

Answer all the questions.
Write each answer in the space provided for it.

Q.1. Change the following into negative sentences:

Example
I am a teacher.
I am not a teacher.

1. He is a mechanic.
He is not a mechanic.

2. The boys work hard.
The boys do not work hard.

3. Arun travels by bus.
Arun does not travel by bus.

4. Ashok came here yesterday.
Ashok did not come here yesterday.

5. He comes here everyday.
He does not come here everyday.

6. My friends are good singers.
My friends are not good singers.

7. They sing well.
They do not sing well.

8. Anil jumped very high.
Anil did not jump very high.

9. The team has won the match.
The team has not won the match.

10. The child has been crying.
The child has not been crying.

(10 marks)
Q.II. Turn the following into questions:-

Example
He is a doctor
Is he a doctor?

That is Gopal's sister.
Is that Gopal's sister?

Gopal rides very fast.
Does Gopal ride very fast?

He had an accident.
Had he an accident?

He broke his arm.
Did he break his arm?

He is in the hospital.
Is he in the hospital?

His friends go to the hospital everyday.
Did his friends go to the hospital everyday?

The doctor has bandaged his arm.
Did the doctor have bandaged his arm?

The doctor gives him injections everyday.
Does the doctor give him injections everyday?

He had a bad pain in the arm.
Had he a bad pain in the arm?

He has been suffering badly.
Has he been suffering badly?

(10 marks)

Q.III. Ask a question to get the underlined part of each statement as answer:-

Example
Krishna brought the chalk
Who brought the chalk?

Mr. Patel lives in Madras.
Who does Mr. Patel live

He came here this morning.
When did he come here?

Lila was reading a story.
What was Lila reading?
4. Rita has gone home, because she is ill.
5. The boy has been hiding in the dust-bin.
6. The servant found the watch on the table.
7. She leaves home at 8 o'clock.
8. The children play in the lawns.
9. The puppies run in the garden.
10. The kitten drinks milk.

Q.IV. Write out the missing parts:

1. A to B: What is the Principal's name?
   C to B: What is A asking?
   B: A is asking what the Principal's name is.
2. A to B: Where is the post office?
   C to B: What does A want to know?
   B: A wants to know where the post office is.
3. A to B: (In the morning) Ravi is taking his exercises.
   C to B: (In the evening) What did A tell you in the morning?
   B: A told me that Ravi is taking his exercises.
4. A to B: How does this machine work?
   C to B: What did A want to find out?
   B: A wants to find out how this machine works.
5. A to B: How did you come here?
   A to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wants to know how I came here.
6. A to B: Where did you study last year?
   A to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wanted to know where my son studied last year.
7. A to B: When does your daughter come back in the evening?
   A to B: What did A want to know?
   B: A wants to find out when my daughter comes back.
One evening little Ganesh and his elder brother Suresh were playing with Ganesh's new red ball. A monkey was sitting on a tree nearby and watching them play. Once the ball went rolling very near the tree. Before Suresh could pick it up, the monkey came running down and snatched it away. Little Ganesh started crying for his beautiful red ball. Then Suresh thought of a plan.

Now, describe in your own words how Suresh got the ball back from the monkey. You may write about five or six sentences in the space below:

And he picked up one piece of stone and the grand Suresh hurled or thrown a small stone towards the monkey. Then immediately, monkey threwed the ball toward Suresh with an aim to hit him. This was beautiful red ball came down and Suresh gave the ball to his crying brother. Then playing a small trick Suresh took the ball from the monkey.