in a more coherent manner so that agriculture could be viewed as a market driven system apart from being a way of life.

BIBLIOGRAPHY
BIBLIOGRAPHY

BOOKS

Goyal, S.K., “Men and Women Wages”, Agricultural Situation in India, 1996.

Nandapurkar, G.G, Small Farmer – A study on their Entrepreneurial Behaviour, Ynetropolitan Book Company. New Delhi, 1982.

JOURNALS AND MAGAZINES

India Council of Social Science Research, Review on Indian Agriculture, 1971.

Perraju Sarma, P., Dimension of Rural poverty (New Delhi; Deya publishing House. 1987).

Saikia, A., 1999a, farm women of Assam - Effect of cropping pattern on employment of female labour and extent of adoption of improved practices. Agricultural Economics Research Review, 12(2).

REPORTS AND PAPERS

Assistant director of statistics, Theni ‘G’ returns 1416 FASLi., 2012.

WEBSITES

www.tn.gov.in.

www.planningcommission.gov.in.
www.economics.ox.ac.uk.
www.ifww.org.
http://tamilnadu online.in.