ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my research guide Dr. Bhushan Patwardhan, Professor, Interdisciplinary School of Health Sciences, University of Pune, Pune (Current address – Manipal Education, 14 Airport Road, Manipal Towers, Bangalore) for his constant encouragement, critical supervision, innovative suggestions and excellent guidance throughout the course of this investigation. It is his unfathomable patience, constant support and co-operation with a gentle touch of affection and care, which helped me to execute the studies successfully.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to my co-guide Dr. Dilip Sarwate, Professor and Certified Management Consultant, for his valuable guidance, which gave me an insight to the marketing aspects of technical research. His constructive criticism, informative suggestions with deepest warmth and personal affection helped me to understand the intricate details of the market research work.

I express my special and profuse thanks to Dr S.K. Mitra, Executive Director, Research and Technical services, The Himalaya Drug Company, Bangalore, for providing all the infrastructural facilities required for carrying out my research work successfully. His generous interest in the study, continuous support, friendly affection and constant guidance helped me to carry out the experimental work smoothly.

I am extremely grateful to Dr Rangesh Paramesh, Head – New Product Initiatives and Regulatory Affairs, The Himalaya Drug Company, Bangalore, for his critical analysis of the work, valuable suggestions, scientific discussions, active guidance and co-operation that helped me to understand the connection of Ayurveda and Modern Science.

I am heartily thankful to my friends Mr. Sarath Chandra Prakash, Research Associate, Analytical Cosmetic department, Himalaya herbal health care, Bangalore and Mr. Praveen T K, Lecturer, Phytopharmacy and Phytomedicine department, J.S.S. College of Pharmacy, Ooty, for their technical support, untiring help and constant co-operation, throughout my research work.
My sincere thanks to Dr. Venkatranganna, Mr. S. Gopumadhavan, Mr. Suryakant Anturlilkar, Mr. Gouse Peer and Mr. Mohamed Rafiq of Pharmacology and Toxicology department; Dr. Krishan Manral of Analytical Cosmetic department; Mr. A.R. Mohan of Analytical Chemistry department, Himalaya Herbal Health Care, Bangalore, for their kind co-operation.

I unforgettably thank Aleem Pasha, Lab assistant, Formulation and Development department for his immense help throughout the experimental work.

I am highly indebted to my father S.K. Sharma and mother Usha Sharma, for their unconditional support, constant encouragement, love and care which helped me to execute my studies successfully.

I wish to express my loving thanks to my husband Gaurav Datta who stood by me through thick and thin. It is his confidence in my abilities, continuous encouragement and silent prayers which helped me to complete my studies.

I am heartily thankful to my little angel like daughter Bhaavyanshi for bearing with me during the course of my study.

I would also like to thank all the people, acquaintances, colleagues, friends and comrades, who directly or indirectly contributed towards the completion of my work.

The episode of acknowledgement can’t be complete without the salutation to the almighty who gave me all the strength and vigour to attain the best in life against all odds.
