ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am immensely grateful to my research guide, Dr Dilip G. Naik, who accepted me as his Ph.D. student without any hesitation when I put forth my research proposal. Thereafter, his constant support, encouragement, careful evaluation, valuable advice and extensive discussion around my work helped me pursue my goal in the right direction. It has been an honor to be his first Ph.D. student.

I remain deeply indebted to my co-guide, Dr. Kumar M.R. Bhat, for his guidance, indispensable contribution and constructive criticism, throughout the course of this study. He has instilled in me a zeal for research that has motivated me even during tough times in the pursuit of the PhD.

I express my gratitude to Dr. Ramdas M. Pai, Chancellor, Manipal University and other officials of Manipal University: Dr. H. S. Ballal, Pro Chancellor; Dr. H. Vinod Bhat, Vice Chancellor; Prof. Datuk Dr. Abdul Razzak Mohd Said, Pro-vice chancellor; Dr. Surendra V. Shetty, Pro-vice chancellor (Mangalore Campus) and Dr. Narayana Sabhahit, Registrar, for providing me with the opportunity to pursue my academic goals.

I am thankful to the Associate Dean’s Dr. Mohan Baliga (member, Doctoral Advisory Committee also) and Dr Ashitha S. Uppoor, for their constant encouragement and support.

I appreciate the advice of members of the Doctoral Advisory Committee (DAC): Dr Kundabala M (former Associate Dean), Dr Vivekananda Pai, for their critical comments and their valuable inputs that have enhanced the quality of the work.
I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to Head of Department, Dr Ravindra Kotian (member, Doctoral Advisory Committee also), who has not only been my teacher, mentor and a pillar of support throughout the thesis, but also a wonderful human being.

I will forever be grateful to Dr Srikant N, for his immense help throughout the thesis work, either in statistics, editing or even for a simple technical help. With his unmatched wisdom and selfless nature, he has helped me in every possible way and offered innumerable creative insights and encouraged me to pursue my ideas. I have learned a lot from him.

I extend my gratitude to Ms Divya Padma, Research Scholar, School of Life Sciences, Manipal; Mr Mohammed Kanafi, Research Scholar, Manipal Institute of Regenerative Medicine, Bangalore; Ms Preethi, Department of Microbiology, Maratha Mandal Dental College & Research Centre, Belgaum; Dr Gopal Krishna Bhat, Professor, and Dr Indira, Post Graduate, Department of Microbiology, KMC, Mangalore for their valuable assistance during biological studies.
