The present research work on “Performance Evaluation of Nationalised Commercial Banks in India Through CAMELS Model in the Post Liberalisation Era” is being submitted under the learned guidance of Dr. Mukesh Ranga, Reader, Institute of Economics & Finance, Bundelkhand University, Jhansi. First and foremost, I would express my deep sense of gratitude to him for his intellectual supervision, expert comments, pre-eminent interest and unflinching support. His painstaking supervision and guidance have helped in improving the quality of the work.

I am grateful to the Almighty who has ever been showering his blessings on me in the form of helpful and cooperative friends, colleagues and well-wisher around. It is his Blessings that this has work has finally taken the shape of a Thesis.

I would also like to place on record my gratitude to senior colleagues in the university for assistance at various stages and encouragement provided by them in completing the work. I owe my deep gratitude to Prof. M.L. Maurya, Director, Institute of Economics and Finance, who encouraged me to undertake this work. I am also very thankful to Dr. C.B. Singh, my senior colleague for his sincere and necessary support at every stage of the study. I am also very grateful to library staffs, who helped me a lot by providing relevant literature and information related to the topics.
I shall fail my sacred moral duty if I don’t express heartfelt gratification to my teachers who showed me the path as a lighthouse of knowledge. I am sincerely indebted to Prof. M. Ahmed for his painstaking effort to go though the thesis patiently and providing me valuable advice to improve the quality of the work.

My regards to parents, uncle and aunty who have always been my inspiration and a positive force behind me in every thick and thin of my life. I thank my in-laws, brothers, and sisters for their love and cooperation.

My sincere thanks are tendered to my son Mohd Sarim Shamim and wife Nazoora who have taken real pains and tolerated me patiently during the tenure of my work as I was not able to devote enough time to them.

Last but not the least, it is my bounding duty to express my gratitude towards everyone whose guidance and help has made this study successful.
