Acknowledgement

The researcher wishes to place on record his gratitude to all those who have helped in the successful completion of this study.

Words fail to express the researcher's profound indebtedness to his supervising teacher Dr. P.S. Sukumaran, Associate Professor, School of Behavioural Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for his constructive guidance, infinite patience and constant encouragement to complete the work successfully. The investigator considers it as a great honour and privilege to be guided by him and offers him deepest regards and sincere gratitude.

Dr. Razeena Padmam, Director, School of Behavioural Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam is also gratefully remembered and thanked for her untiring support and encouragement throughout the research work. Sincere thanks are also due to Dr. S. Sharma, Professor in Statistics, Achuthamenon Centre for Public Health, Sree Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Sciences and Technology (SCTIMST), Trivandrum, for his guidance in statistical analysis.

The researcher acknowledges with gratitude the valuable help rendered by the principals and teachers of the Adarsh and Jyothis special schools in collecting the data. A very big thank you goes to the children and their parents who kindly participated in this research. The investigator is truly indebted and grateful for their involvement and for making the process so enjoyable. Their courage, strength and stories are truly inspiring and motivate the investigator to hopefully make a difference in this challenging and incredibly satisfying field. The investigator has always considered it an enormous privilege to work with these inspirational children.

A word of thanks to the librarian, office staff, and teachers of the School of Behavioural Sciences and to the librarians of Mahatma Gandhi University, SCTIMST for providing necessary facilities for literature collection.

To all colleagues and fellow students, the investigator thanks them for their patience, support, advice and encouragement. With the help of those around the PhD journey was more enjoyable and less isolating.

Personal debts are the most difficult to express in formal terms. Yet the investigator wishes to take this opportunity to thank his family members for their support throughout this endeavour.
