ABSTRACT

The abstract of the entire study is for your perusal. Chapter I consist of Introduction, research methodology, data analysis both primary and secondary, general study about the study area characterisation of the whole thesis. This also includes the concept of microfinance, NGOs more in the form of theoretical framework. The objectives, hypotheses, limitations, area of study are also present. Chapter II consist of complete literature browsed through Net, visiting various literatures and also meeting experts in the field. This secondary and primary was independently collected by the researcher for the study. In Chapter III the primary data collected from the samples were tabulated, analyzed and interpreted sufficiently with percentage analysis. In the Chapter IV, the hypotheses were statistically analyzed and the results were then and their declared. The SPSS for NGOs and banks were also analyzed in this chapter. In Chapter V, the researcher has concluded, summarized, suggested and given a thought for the future generation to further expand the results. This also includes appendix such as questionnaires, formats of the banks to procure microfinance from banks.