

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is an attempt to study the role and accountability of the Media in the Indian democracy. The topic selected is very challenging as various aspects are involved herein. The arena of the powers and impact of the media has increased tremendously; and to cover all these counters was not a very easy job for the researcher. The task of thanks giving and expressing deep gratitude is very difficult as the words cannot suffice to do the task; nevertheless the research student wishes to express his heart-felt gratitude and acknowledge all those for the unforgettable and invaluable contribution made in order to complete this research work.

First and foremost the researcher would like to express his thanks for the blessings and everlasting gratitude to his parents Indraneel Shringarpure and Anjali Shringarpure. One prominent and fatherly figure of Prof. Dr. Mukund Sarada, Dean Faculty of Law, and Principal New Law College Pune has been a perennial source of support and guidance to the present research student; for which he will be thankful till his last day. Further the research student is highly indebted to his guide - Dr. Jyoti Dharm, faculty, New Law College Pune. She not only has a unique way of guiding and educating but also has been undying source of inspiration and courage. She has supported and guided the research student whenever he was faced with difficult prepositions; for which he wishes to express his thanks

The researcher wishes to express his thanks and gratitude to another pillar of support ie Dr. Sapna Deo; who has given many new ideas and insights to the researcher.

The researcher also wishes to express his gratitude to Ms. Archana Ubhe for providing technical support.

The researcher is grateful to Ms. Smita Vedpathak, librarian New Law College Pune, for extending library facilities.

Last but not the least the researcher is grateful to all his colleagues and his family for their immense help and unfailing encouragement.
