ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not travelled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. At the end of my thesis I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

Foremost, at this moment of accomplishment, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my Guide, Dr. Maitreyee Choudhury, Professor, Centre for Himalayan Studies, for the continuous support of my Ph.D study and research, for her patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. Her guidance helped me all the time during my research and writing of this thesis. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D study. This work would not have been possible without her guidance, support and encouragement. Under her guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. I am grateful to my husband Dr. Thomas Chandy, who was a constant source of encouragement and support to me despite his tight schedule. I am also indebted to my sons, Sanat and Rajat, who helped in making my statistical tables and graphs successfully.

Mr. Betal Koushik worked overtime and ensured a quality product and deserves commendation for his excellent work. A number of colleagues and friends have helped me during stages of collection of materials, compilation and in providing valuable inputs, both in terms of images and visuals in print and electronic forms. Grateful appreciation is expressed to Ms. Hemlatha Rai in providing valuable inputs both in terms of maps and images in electronic forms.

I am also indebted to the Centre of Himalayan Studies for having provided me with the logistic support relating to the official procedures for completing this work.

Though I had to work under extremely tight schedule, I have tried my level best to do justice to the job entrusted to me, I record here my warm appreciation, for the enthusiasm and moral support for everybody who had made this work possible.
Last but not the least I would like to thank my family and friends for bearing with me while I worked on this assignment, sometimes to the point of cutting into the time that I should have spent with them.
