

Acknowledgement

My Ph.D thesis “A Comparative Study on Training and Development Practices for Nurses in Leading Public and Private Hospitals in Pune City” is not just a representation of my research but also a memorable milestone of my life.

The last five years dedicated to this research would not have been possible without the support and contribution of many people. My acknowledgement is a small way of expressing my gratitude to these people.

I would like to dedicate this thesis to my late father-in-law, Dr L.D. Wahegaonkar, a Ph.D in Physics, who has been my pillar of strength throughout. His motivation and enthusiasm, encouraged me to carry on my work.

Words cannot express my sincere gratitude to Dr Ashutosh Misal, who along with being a guide and mentor has also been a good friend, providing academic and moral support through this whole journey. Never did he falter in providing every kind of help, while patiently working through every query and problem of mine.

I would also like to thank our Research Director, Dr Mukund Tapkir, who has been a father figure, with his words of encouragement and advice.

I express my thanks to Dr Roshan Kazi for helping me out with statistical analysis of my data, and in the process making the subject interesting and easy to comprehend.

Dr Priyanka Bhusari has been an invaluable research assistant by understanding my exact requirement for the research. “Thank you Priyanka.”

A very special thanks to all the hospitals involved in my research. I acknowledge the tremendous help of the authorities and the respondents (nurses) of the hospitals. My sincere thanks to all the Directors, Matrons and Nurse Educators whose names have been mentioned in Chapter 5 of this thesis.

Appreciation goes out to all the people who have directly or indirectly helped my research.

I thank my family for supporting me throughout, specially my children- Ananyaa, Arnav and Anindya; for being such understanding and wonderful gems.

This acknowledgement cannot be complete without mention of the most important person of my life, my husband, Dr Abhijeet Wahegaonkar, without whom this endeavour would have been impossible. His belief in me, motivated me to take up this task and bring it to fulfilment.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Anuradha A. Wahegaonkar", with a horizontal line underneath it.

Dr Anuradha A. Wahegaonkar