

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author has great privilege to express her immense sense of gratitude to Dr. Sukhmani Waraich, Assistant Professor, Khalsa College Lyallpur Institute of Management and Technology for her valuable guidance and untiring efforts throughout the tenure of this work. She has been an inspiring force where targets appeared to be difficult during the course of work.

It is a matter of great privilege and pride for me to express my sincere thanks and immense gratitude to Dr. Nachhattar Singh, Ex-Advisor to VC, I.K.G.PTU, Jalandhar for his valuable and intellectual guidance throughout the tenure of this work. His involvement, unflinching encouragement, amiable nature and easy accessibility have been immensely helpful me. His timely help, constructive criticism and painstaking efforts made the author capable to compile the thesis in its present form.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Balwinder Singh for his valuable guidance and support throughout the work.

Deep sense of gratitude is expressed to authorities of SKMV School, for permitting the author to pursue her research work. I also express my sincere thanks to Ms. Rachna Monga, Principal, SKMV School for her cooperation and support.

I wish to thank the staff of Agriculture Cooperative Staff Training Institute (ACSTI), Jalandhar for extending their support and facilities for carry out the research work.

Deep sense of gratitude is expressed to authorities of I.K.G. Punjab Technical University, Jalandhar, for permitting the author to pursue her research work. I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. A. P. Singh, Dean (RIC), I. K.G. Punjab Technical University for their cooperation and support. Sincere thanks are due to Ms. Jasleen Kaur, Assistant Registrar (RIC), Ms. Reena, Ms. Gurleen Kaur and Mr. Tehal Singh for their extended help and support during the entire period of research.

I sincerely record thanks and appreciation for my friends and colleagues, for their moral support and help to keep things in perspective. The path towards this thesis spans several years of work, the author acknowledges her debt to all those who have helped along the way and seek apology that she could not mention personally one by one.

I humbly dedicate this work to my parents, parents-in-law and family members, who are the source of inspiration and encouragement behind this research work. The author sincerely acknowledges the help extended by her parents, Mrs.

Adarsh Dhawan and Mr. Mulkh Raj Dhawan, her brother, Manish Dhawan and her sister in Law, Deepika, during the tenure of this work by sacrificing their comforts. Special thanks are due for my nephew, Naman Dhawan. They all have been a constant source of motivation and always encouraged me to complete this study and take it to a successful conclusion. At the same time a sense of forgiveness is recorded for inability to provide probable help and attention they required during the entire duration. I would like to express my reverence and great admiration for my nephews and nieces for their continual support and encouragement during the course of this work.

A sense of apology is due from my sweet daughter Tamanna, who probably missed many precious moments of her childhood from motherly love and affection. The husband of author, Dr Rakesh Bhatia, deserves special thanks and appreciation for his persistent moral support and giving his best to the growing daughter during the tenure of this work by sacrificing his comforts. Author is falling short of words to express gratitude to him for the determination shown to bear extra household responsibilities during the tenure of this work.

Above all, author is highly indebted to Great and Gracious Almighty God who blessed her with spiritual support and courage at each and every stage of this work.
