AKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am sincerely obliged and indebted to Dr. V. J. Dominic, Department of Botany, Sacred Heart College, Thevara, for his sagacious advice and able direction throughout my research project. I am very thankful for all possible help, constitutive suggestions and guidance and support during my project work. I consider it as a great pleasure to have an opportunity to take up the Ph. D project under his supervision and guidance.

I extend my thanks to the college Principal Rev. Dr. Johnson X. Palakkappillil and other authorities of S. H. College for all the facilities provided.

With respect, regards and immense pleasure, I wish to acknowledge and express sincere thanks from my heart to Dr. M. S. Francis, Rev Dr. Jose John, Dr. Gibi Kuriakose, Dr. George Joseph and Dr. C. M. Joy, Department of Botany, Sacred Heart College, Thevara, for their timely help during my research work.

It gives me satisfaction in expressing my heartfelt gratitude to the Head of Vytila Rice Research Station, Dr. K. S. Shylaraj, for providing the seed samples of various Rice varieties, used in the study.

With immense pleasure, I express my cordial thanks to Mr. M. V. Sebastian (Joy) and other non-teaching staffs of Department of Botany, Sacred Heart College, Thevara, for their timely help throughout the work. I thank the library staffs of the Sacred Heart College, Thevara and Cochin University of Science and Technology for their cooperation and help during the period of this research work.
I owe my deepest thanks to my family members for being always understanding, supportive and helpful.

I am grateful to my fellow researchers, Miss. Jis Sebastian, Mrs. Reshmi T.R., Mrs. Soumya Murali, Mrs. Geo Joseph, Mrs. Parvathy Mavelli, Mrs. Chethana Ajith and Miss. Swapna Vijayan for their cooperation and help during the period of this project work.

Above all, I dedicate myself to the Lord God Almighty for his benevolence and blessing showered upon me at all times
