

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Firstly, I would like to thank my Parents who taught me to dream big. It is their blessing which gave me courage and strength to withstand all the difficulties I faced during the course of this research. I am thankful to the Almighty for his blessing which has helped me to complete this thesis.

I can not find words to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Professor Rumki Basu Without her academic excellence, patience and encouragement this thesis would not have been possible. She has been very supporting and inspiring. I will always remain indebted to her.

I am thankful to the entire faculty at the Department of Political Science who have helped me in fine tuning the research proposal which was required for its successful execution. I am also grateful to the administrative staff for their help. I am grateful to the University Grants Commission for providing a scholarship for this research without which the research would not have been possible.

This thesis would not have been possible without the help of my wife as well as several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study. I acknowledge the support provided by various people in Delhi like Professor Datt, Dr. Prakash as well as the people of Delhi where I am doing my empirical work. I would like to thank all those who have helped in the data collection of the study.

I owe my deepest gratitude to my family particularly my wife for her constant encouragement and support. I am also thankful to my friends above all. I would like to dedicate this thesis to my grand father and grand mother. It is because of their constant struggle and hardship; I have been able to complete this thesis.
