I wish to thank a number of people who have been involved in making this thesis. First and foremost I wish to express my sincerest thanks to my supervisor, Dr. Udayan Bhattacharya, for his support, encouragement and guidance to complete my research work.

I am mostly indebted to my teacher, Late Prof. Prabir Roy Chaudhury who sowed the seed of Absolute Syntax in my mind almost twenty five years ago in the MLIS class. Since then, I was nurturing it in my head and now my dream became a reality.

I am grateful to my teachers, Prof. Amitabha Chatterjee, Prof. Krishnapada Majumder, Prof. Ramkrishna Saha, Prof. J. K. Sarkhel, Dr. Binod Behari Das, Dr. Asitabha Das and Shri Anup Kr. Sarkar for their encouragement and blessings upon me throughout my academic path and career.

Special thanks go to my Colleagues at the Department of Library and Information Science, Jadavpur University, Dr. Sunil Kr. Chatterjee, Dr. Chaitali Dutta, Dr. Subarna Kr. Das, Dr. Gautam Maity and Md. Nurul Alam for their kind help and cooperation.

I wish my heartiest thanks to Dipankar Roy, Departmental librarian, Pratip Kr. Dey, Swapan

Sikder, Ritarani Pal, Taraknath Sen, Dinesh Ghosh for their timely help and assistance.

I also thank my student Shri Neeladri Sekhar Mondal for his assistance in this project.

Last but not least, I express my deepest gratitude to Mrs. Usha Halder (Didi) who relieved me from all household works and without whom I could not complete this thesis.
