ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Today, when I pick up my pen to express my heartfelt thanks to all those who helped me realize what I consider so dear, I have no dearth of feelings but only an understanding of the futility of my expressions. For, I am sure, I can never manage to bring forth my sincere gratitude towards all who have meant so much in the formation of the thesis.

I express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Neelam Misra, my supervisor, for her immaculate planning, enlightening guidance, and meticulous concern for details, timely suggestion and above all introducing me to the fascinating world of medicinal and aromatic plants in Biochemistry.

My privilege to record my gratitude to Dr. M.K. Srivastava, my co-supervisor and Senior Scientist, Biochemistry, Indian Grassland & Fodder Research Institute (IGFRI) Jhansi, for his ceaseless inspiration, passionate treatment and providing me the necessary facilities and help.

It imparts me a profound delight in thanking Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants (CIMAP), Lucknow for allowing me to attend the library of CIMAP, Lucknow for research purpose.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Ajay Kumar Gupta, Reader, Institute of Pharmacy, Chattrapati Sahuji Maharaj University, Kanpur for sharing his interest and knowledge in the field Pharmacology.

I am also thankful to Dr. Jamal Ahmad, Assistant Director, Chemical research unit, Department of Research in Unani medicine, A.M.U. Aligarh, for their constant encouragement and providing necessary lab facilities for isolation of chemical constituents from medicinal plants.

I am highly indebted to Shri Kailash Rajput and Shri Jwala Prasad for their constant inspiration, encouragement and timely help, whenever I needed during the course of this thesis.
Further thanks are also due to my friends and colleagues especially Dr. Zakia Khanam, Department of Chemistry, A.M.U. Aligarh for being there for me during the course of thesis.

In no less degree, I display my inexpressible gratitude for my family for encouragement, support, affection and understanding.
