Acknowledgement

This thesis is on a very micro subject and it tries to probe deep into it. This task was made easy by Dr. Vikram Dahifale my guide, who gave me enough free hand and provided timely suggestions and advice, wherever necessary. Working with him was a mission. Many of the thing I have learnt from him during the past three years period go beyond the pages of this dissertation.

Dr. Dipak Shinde, Director of School of Media studies and my research centre at S. R. I. M. U., Nanded gave some important suggestion regarding research and guided me during Ph. D. course work. I shall always remember the help rendered by him.

I also owe a debt of gratitude to the Dy. Librarian Dr. Jagdish Kulkarni of Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada Univ. Nanded, Dr. Rajendra Kumbhar, Librarian. University of Pune and Prof. Vaidya, Librarian Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Technological Univ. Lonere for their kind co-operation in collecting the required data. I am grateful to Dr. I. K. Ravichandra Rao, Ret. Professor and Head of Documentation Research and Training Centre, Bangalore for his valuable guidance on email and during training programme of Bibliometric at INFLIBNET, Gujrath.
I am grateful to Dr. P. B. Landge, Principal D. G. Tatkare Arts & Commerce College, Tala for their valuable suggestion and directional guidance. I wish to thank Dr. Pange, Ex. Librarian, University of Pune for his valuable suggestions regarding my research work. I take this opportunity to thank Dr. Rajendra Kankriya who encourage me to do research in Library and Information Science. I also thank to Dr. Nanasaheb Yadav Assoc. Professor, D. G. Tatkare College, Tala for their constant support throughout my study. I would also like to thank my staff member Dr. D. D. Kadam, Ass. Professor in Economics, who sacrificed his valuable time to make language correction of my work.

My involvement with my research work has led me to neglect my personal and social responsibilities at home. I will like to pay my special thanks to my wife Mrs. Shilpa, my son Master Shubham and Nephew Mr. Vikram Vyas, who have been my source of inspiration and continuous encouragement, without their help and cooperation, this research work would have not been completed in time. My thanks are also due Mr. Mitesh Mule for typing a part of this dissertation and to Mr. Mangesh Polekar and all office staff of D. G. Tatkare College, Tala for xeroxing work. In addition, there are so many other friends, colleagues and well wishers who helped me from time to time in completing my research work. It is not possible to list them. I wish to put on record my special thanks to all of them for giving support on completing this research work.

Jagdish Vyas