ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the result of more forces at work than are visible and I will take the opportunity to acknowledge them.

Completion of this study would not have been possible without the grace of Almighty God. I would like to offer heartfelt salutation at the LOTUS feet of the Supreme Being for the physical and mental strength, bestowed upon me and in whose faith I was able to complete this work.

I feel ecstatically delighted in expressing my sincere thanks and personal regards to Dr. Neelam Dhanda, Professor, Department of Commerce, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for her benevolent guidance, innovative ideas, constant encouragement and critical suggestions which went a long way in providing me the necessary insight into the problem and directed the course of the study. Her encouragement and blessings have opened the path for future research.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Prof. Mahabir Narwal and Prof. Subhash Chand for their scholarly guidance and encouragement.

I would like to acknowledge Prof. Narender Singh, Prof. Ajay Suneja and Prof. Tejinder Sharma for providing necessary support, encouragement and best wishes.

I am also thankful to the Non-teaching Staff of the Department of Commerce, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for being extremely cooperative.

I give heartfelt thanks to my parents and family members for regular encouragement and empowering me to reach this level.

A lot of individual have contributed in the preparation of this research work. I am thankful to all of them for their timely help, encouragement, support, valuable comments, suggestions and many innovative ideas in carrying out this research. It is my proud privilege and pleasure to express deep sense of gratitude to these people especially Dr. Karnika Gupta and Ms. Sonia.
