ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator wishes to express her gratitude and indebtedness to those who helped and blessed her in the completion of the present study. She would like to make special mention of the assistance received by her from the following persons:

1. Dr. K. Sivarajan, Principal, Calicut University College of Teacher Education, under whose guidance she conducted her study. She gratefully acknowledges the expert help and encouragement rendered by him during the course of the study.

2. Dr. A. Sukumaran Nair, one of the outstanding scholars in teacher education to whom the investigator is indebted for the help she received in finalizing the design of the study, permission to use the tools standardized by him, and for the help given in the intricate technical aspects of the study, which helped the investigator in the fruitful completion of the study. The investigator would like to express her overflowing gratitude, devotion and respect for him. She also wishes to give special thanks to Mrs. Sukumaran Nair for the hospitality shown towards her during the course of the research study.

3. Mr. K.S. Hamza, General Secretary, Arafa Institute for Teacher Education, Attur, Thrissur, for his generosity and inspiring support rendered by him during the course of study, as also to the staff of the college for giving full support to her in all her research activities.
4. The heads and staff of different institutions which helped the investigator to collect the needed data for her study.

5. Baiju P.T., Lecturer in Physical Science, Mar Ostashtheos Training College, Thrissur, for the generous assistance given to the investigator in data-collection.

6. Dr. Viswanathan Nair, Head of the Department of Education, University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram for the valuable help rendered for the study, and making available the library facilities of the Department.

7. Mrs. Lalitha, the librarian of SCERT, Thiruvananthapuram and Mr. Moses Addison, Assistant librarian, Department of Education, Thiruvananthapuram for all help in the use of the libraries under their control for the purpose of her research.

8. Mr. Joseph Rozario, Director, Travancore Institute of Science and Technology, Thiruvananthapuram and his Office Assistant, Mrs. Sreekala Harikumar for the generous help in the computer work involved in the study.

9. Her husband Dr.K.V.Menon for the encouragement and moral support rendered by him during the course of study.