ANNEXURE - IV

BIBLIOGRAPHY

103Impact of micro credit on women's empowerment

• www.ruralfinance.org.

• Kumar, MAU. and T.N. Sreedhara. 2004. From passive participation to effective leadership: A study on the advances in women leadership in Dakshina Kannada, India. Sixth International Conference of International Society for Third Sector Research (ISTR) Ryerson University and

• Moreno, C. 2005. Presentation on women's economic empowerment: Current realities and priorities for the future. Gender equity in economics.

• Simanowitz, A and A Walker. 2002. Ensuring impact: reaching the poorest while building financially self-sufficient institutions, and showing improvement in the lives of the poorest women and their families.

• Lalita N. (2005): “Micro Finance and Rural Development”, Gandhi gram Rural Institute, Gandhi gram, Dindigal, Tamilnadu. This report highlights the role of micro finance in the rural development.

• Meenu Agrawal, Shobana Nelasco (2009) “Empowerment of Rural Women in India” Kanishka Publishers, New Delhi. This gives the deep study of the SHG movement from savings to business and bank loans to repayments.

• Friedrich C., Glaub M., Gramberg K. & Frese M. 2003: Does training improve the business performance of small scale entrepreneurs: An evaluation study? Unpublished document, Cape Town: University of Western Cape, South Africa. This article is a deep study of necessity of training to the SHG and evaluation methods.

• Latur Gazette 2005: This gives the detailed information of the Latur district and trends of development in Latur district.
• Socio Economic Report of Latur: Statistical office: This report gives the information about the social economic and industrial growth in the district.

• Annual Report DRDA, Latur 2009: this report gives detailed information about the SHGs under SJSRY and BPL families and IRDP programme.

• Annual Report MAVIM, 2009: This report provides the information about the SHGs formed by the MAVIM and the financial position of the SHGs.

• Neera Burra, Joy Deshmukh-Ranadive and Ranjani K.Murthy 2005: ‘Micro- Credit, Poverty and Empowerment: Linking the triad’ Sage Publications. This report elaborates the poverty eradication concept with empowerment of poor with the help of micro credit.

• K.G.Karmakar 1999: ‘Rural Credit and Self-Help Groups: Micro-finance needs and concepts in India’, Sage Publications. This report provides the detailed analysis of micro credit is the need for the development in India.

• C.K.Prahalad, 2005: ‘The Fortune at the Bottom of the Pyramid’, Wharton School Publishing. This report gives the very precious information about the development pyramid and the way of development. The three tier information of development and the sustainability explains consistency in growth.
• ‘NABARD initiatives turn rural women into entrepreneurs’, The Hindu, Feb 20, 2004. The article gives the information about the initiative of NABARD for bank linkages and micro credit facilities.

• Where HLL Shakti comes from: The Hindu Business Line, May 29, 2003. This article provides the information about scheme for direct marketing of HLL product through SHG. The corporate social responsibility and untapped potential at rural level creates opportunity for the rural SHG to earn more money with better quality product.

• ‘SHGs help to promote women entrepreneurship’ The Hindu, Jan 24, 2005. This news provides information of micro enterprises set up by the rural poor SHG member.

Journals

• “Poverty alleviation: The role of rural institution and its participation” The national bank news review, Vol. 24(3), Oct – Nov 2009, PP 23-25. This article highlights the role of NGO and Gramsabha for the poverty alleviation through SHG and education.

• “SHG a Study”: Yojana Aug.2008 PP 50-52. This article provides information about the SHG movement in Maharashtra and the success story of Western Maharashtra SHGs.

• SHG in Maharashtra: Status as on today, Yojana 2008, PP 31-34. This article provides the statistical information about the formation and grading of SHG.

• NABARD: Status of Micro finance in India-2007-08 this book provides the information and statistics about the finance the SHG and the trend in refinance.
• The ICFAI journal of Entrepreneurship Development Vol.VI, No.2, 2009: Women Entrepreneurship Development: A Catalytic Role of NGOs. This article elaborates the need of NGO for the development of Women Entrepreneurship Development.

• Dr. B.C. Das 2009: Cab Calling July – September Utilization of funds and credit flow under SJSY in high poverty state. This report gives the detailed study of problems faced by the SJSRY SHGs in finance and marketing of their products.

• Women Link Vol. no. 15, No.1: Financial and social constraints of women SHGs: An empirical study by Dr. A. Abdul Raheem. This research abstract highlights the constraints of development of women by means of finance and social responsibility.

• The ICFAI journal of Entrepreneurship Development Vol.VI, No.2, 2009: Rural women micro entrepreneurs: An empirical study on social, Business aspects and economic Impact. This article relates the financial independence of rural women and improved in quality life.

• Margin Vol.32, No.4, pp 82-84: Empowerment of women through SHG by Manimegali M and Rajeshwari G (2000). This article provides the information about the steps for the women empowerment its need.

• Indian Journal of Agriculture Economics Vol.64, no. 4, Oct- Dec, 2009: Economic development of SHG in Karnataka with special reference to Venkatnahalli in South India by Nagraj and Chandrashekhar. This thesis explains the SHG working in farm sector and those who selected the agro business as a key activity.
Women empowerment through SHGs in Bijapur District: A study, By Naveen K Shetty