ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Present research work reflects not only my own labour, but the contributions, large and small, of various persons and institutions. Therefore, I feel honoured to express my eternal gratitude for assistance I have received from different quarters in the preparation of this research study. Since, it is not possible to include all from whom I received invaluable assistance from time to time in making the work a complete one. Thus I would like to acknowledge those individuals and institutions without whom this would have remained incomplete.

At the outset I would like to express my great sense of gratitude to Almighty Allah, who provided me a great strength and patience in tough times.

I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my supervisor, Dr Shura Darapuri, Associate Professor, Department of History, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University Lucknow. I thank for her affection, inspiration and unflagging encouragement she showered on me that kept my spirits high. She has been unstintingly supportive to me from the very beginning of research work. It was her meticulous guidance and thought provoking questions which made this research possible. She has been a unique combination of mentor, critic, staunch supporter and friend. She provided me liberty and the sense of accountability with perfect professionalism which eventually made me a trained researcher.

My greatest institutional debt goes to the Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi (ICHR), who provided me a generous financial support, in the form of Junior Research Fellowship (JRF). It was because of this fellowship that I was able to invest liberally in my research. Since historical research cannot be done in a closed laboratory, and source material cannot be located in a single place. Thus the fellowship allowed me to roam different parts of country wherever the source material was available. Indeed the kind of support I got from ICHR is invaluable to the present research work. I really thank all staff of ICHR for providing me timely financial support.

I am extremely thankful Professor S. Victor Babu, Head Department of History Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University Lucknow, whose advice and guidance always inspire me and gave me an indispensible moral support.

I am also grateful to other teachers of department like Dr. V. M. Ravi Kumar who gave me valuable suggestions whenever I knocked his door. I wish sincere thanks to Dr. S. M. Basha for his precious comments and suggestions which have really polished my research attitude. I thank Dr B. N. Prasad, Dr Renu Pandey, Dr Reyaz, Arjun, Rimma and Priti for their support.

I wish to express sincere thanks to administrative staff of Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University Lucknow for their help and cooperation. Thanks are due to the staff of Central Library, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University Lucknow, for they gave me easy access to the material crucial to topic.

I wish to record my gratitude for the help I received from the staff of following institutions: Allama Iqbal Libray, Institute of Kashmir Studies, Seminar Library Department of History, Library of Centre of Central Asia Studies, Departmental Library of Department of Sociology and Departmental Library of Department of Education of University of Kashmir.

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge the services I got from the staff of Sri Ranbir Singh Library Jammu, Dhanvantri Central Library University of Jammu, Sri Pratap Singh Library, Lal Mandi, Srinagar, and District Library of Anantnag.
