ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To pen down the words of mouth in acknowledgement is always an uphill task which is usually ignored by many by managing usual acknowledgements.

Golden words of verses of ancient spiritual world have always ruled my mind. It took me few seconds to decide as to how I should express my deep sense of gratitude to ‘two jurists’ of my country who came in my life as angles and their little touch made my mind and heart as purest as Ganga Jal and provided rocking power that helped me to walk on an untraveled road to bring down a much needed picturesque of humanity shadowing our continent. Every pleasure of my life falls short when I think to spend few minutes with these purest souls. I fail myself to find words to acknowledge their role in my life. Following verses of Indian mystic Poet and Saint Kabir Das Ji have helped me to express my reverence to illustrious legal luminaries:

गुरु गोबिन्द दोऊ खड़े, काके लागू पांप।
बलिहारी गुरु अपने गोबिन्द दियो बताय।

दोहे का हिंदी में अर्थ: गुरु और गोबिन्द (भागवान) एक साथ खड़े हों तो किसे प्रताप करना चाहिए - गुरु को अथवा गोबिन्द को? ऐसी स्थिति में गुरु के श्रीरूपों में शीश झुकाना उत्तम है जिनके कृपा रूपी प्रसाद से गोबिन्द का दर्शन करने का सौभाग्य प्राप्त हुआ।

गुरु बिन ज्ञान न उपजै, गुरु बिन मिले न मोष।
गुरु बिन तख्ते न सत्य को गुरु बिन मिटे न दोष।

दोहे का हिंदी में अर्थ : कबीर दास जी कहते हैं - हे सांसारिक प्राणियों। बिना गुरु के ज्ञान का मिलना असंभव है। तब तक मनुष्य अज्ञान रूपी अंधकार में भटकता हुआ मायारूपी सांसारिक बन्धों में जमकर रहता है जब तक कि गुरु की कृपा प्राप्त नहीं होती। मोक्ष रूपी मार्ग दिखाते वाले गुरु हैं। बिना गुरु के सत्य एवं असत्य का ज्ञान नहीं होता। उचित और अनुचित के भेद का ज्ञान नहीं होता फिर मोक्ष का स्थापन होगा? अतः गुरु की शरण में जाओ। गुरु ही सच्ची सात दिखाएंगे।

गुरु पारस को अन्तरी, जानत है सब संत।
वह लोहा कचन करे, ये करि लें महतः।

दोहे का हिंदी में अर्थ : गुरु और पारस के अन्तर को सभी ज्ञानी पुरूष जानते हैं। पारस मणि के विषय जग विख्यात हैं कि उसके स्वर्ग से लोहा सोने का बन जाता है किन्तु गुरु भी इतने महान हैं कि अपने गुण ज्ञान में ढालकर शिष्य को अपने जैसा ही महान बना लेते हैं।

I have nothing more except the words of above verses of Kabir Das Ji, to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Research Guides Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Kumar Sinha, Director, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi and Prof. (Dr.) Shashikala Gurpur, Director, Symbiosis Law School and Dean, Faculty of Law, Symbiosis International (Deemed University), Pune. These two persons are illustrious legal luminaries of international repute and pioneer in the implementation of novel innovation practices in the legal education of India. Their magnanimous contribution in the field of legal research has helped innumerable researchers to translate their dreams into reality. I feel fortunate to have such living legends in my life as Guide and pathfinder.
I also express my respect and sincere thanks to Prof. (Dr.) M.S. Raste, the then Vice-Chancellor of Symbiosis International (Deemed University), for his valuable guidance and encouragement to carry out the Research.

I also express my sincere thanks to Ms. Urvashi Rathod, Director SCRI and Dr. Sanjay D. Pohekar, Professor (Mechanical) and Head, Research Programmes, Symbiosis International (Deemed University), Pune for their constant valuable guidance during the course of my research work.

I would also like to express my gratitude to few other personalities who encouraged me and helped me to walk on a path which was much spoken in debates but less understood for many decades. The first name goes to legal luminary – Hon’ble Mr. Justice Dalveer Bhandari, Former Judge, Supreme Court of India and now Member, International Court of Justice. His Lordship suggested me for doctoral research. Perhaps His Lordship’s farsightedness had read my mindset and in fact His Lordship’s suggestions were nothing but words of God conveying blessings to walk on an untraveled road to translate my ideas into reality under the supervision of two angels.

I am also thankful to Hon’ble Mr. Justice J. Chelameswar, Judge, Supreme Court of India, for his kind blessings, support and guidance at every stage of my research. I have learnt from His Lordship that there is no alternate of hardwork to achieve success in academic life.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. R.K. Srivastava, Additional Registrar, and the entire staff of the Supreme Court Judges’ Library for their immense support without which I would not have been able to complete my research. Dr. Srivastava not only provided me all possible support but also encouraged me to adopt innovative ideas for doing unique work.

Since the journey on the road chosen was not a popular one where I could have met many people to seek blessings, therefore, the agenda of actual work was discussed with very few personalities whenever required. However, inputs were taken from large number of experts from every sphere of life. Giving reference to specific names will prove burdening this acknowledgement, therefore, I would end it up with formal acknowledgement.

During the course of my research I had discussions on various aspects with various learned academicians, some of whom are now adorning the offices of Dean/Director/Vice-Chancellor of various renowned Law Schools of our country, many retired Hon’ble Judges of the Supreme Court of India, various retired as well as sitting Hon’ble Judges of many High Courts, various other judicial officers of various States, many Parliamentarians, members of Legislative Assemblies and other local leaders, various senior Army Officers and IPS Officers, many senior officers of Government of India, many legal correspondents, many reporters of Print as well as Electronic Media, many religious and spiritual leaders, many poets, members of the NGOs, members of the Bar, Jail Officers, law students and even few convicts. I express my deep sense of gratitude to everyone for their open discussion and views on the topic in issue. These discussions always encouraged me to continue to walk on the path chosen because that was a different path than the one that most of the people expect from any researcher.
I also express my sincere thanks to all the Library Staff Members of Symbiosis Law School and Symbiosis International (Deemed University), Pune, Indian Law Institute, National Human Rights Commission, Parliament Library, The Central Archaeological Library, The Nehru Memorial Museum & Library, and the statisticians of the National Crime Record Bureau, New Delhi.

I owe a lot to every member of my family for their immense faith in me during the course of my journey of research. I owe a lot to my friends and my neighbours for encouraging me to put my best. No one was aware as to what exactly I have been doing for a long time but their immense faith, that my work will surely be of great importance and utility for our judicial system, has always encouraged me to put my best in research work.

This journey of research aimed to achieve a goal with the help of various stakeholders but the end of this journey seems to me a starting point for future research for welfare of the human beings. This research has helped me to explore the life. The life does not mean to lead or to live a good life. The life is to live for others, to see happiness on unknown faces by working for humanity. I shall now strive for the welfare of all needy, poor and the people of marginalized section of the society beyond national geographical boundaries. Hopefully everyone who helped me in this journey will continue to bless me to bridge the gap to the extent possible.

(Mukesh Kumar)
