List of Figures

Figure 1: The WHO Health System Framework ................................................................. 3
Figure 2: Review of Literature: Number of research studies/ articles - at a glance .......... 64
Figure 3: Methodology grid ............................................................................................... 66
Figure 4: Thematic analysis was conducted on following themes .................................... 86
Figure 5: Evolution of institutes offering Master of Public Health (MPH) programmes in India ................................................................. 99
Figure 6: Health Management Professionals HMPs produced annually in Best Guess, Optimistic and Aspirational scenarios in India (2017 to 2026) ........................................... 110
Figure 7: Gap in the number of HMPs calculated against a normative need of 2.97 HMPs per 100,000 population ................................................................. 113
Figure 8: Word cloud created from first responses received from respondents when asked about most famous public health institutions in India ........................................... 120
Figure 9: Public Health Professionals PHPs produced annually in Best Guess, Optimistic and Aspirational scenarios in India (2017 to 2026) ................................................... 123
Figure 10: Distribution of PHPs supplied by Medical Colleges vs Institutions (other than medical colleges, including Schools of Public Health) offering public health programs .. 124
Figure 11: Word cloud created from first responses received from respondents when asked about if currently a need for additional public health professionals exists in the country .... 135
Figure 12: Gap in the number of PHPs calculated against a need of 11 PHPs per 100,000 population and introduction of Public Health Cadre ......................................................... 141
Figure 13: Mapping career opportunities for public health professionals (domain/ sector/ experience/ average salary wise) ................................................................. 143
Figure 14: Designations of public health professionals in India ...................................... 144
Figure 15: Master of Public Health (MPH) program's core competency domains .......... 157
Figure 16: Tuition Fees for select public health programs with Master's degree ............ 159
Figure 17: State wise distribution of IDI respondents ...................................................... 193