

CONTENTS

		Page
CHAPTER-I	INTRODUCTION	1-21
CHAPTER-II	ACCOMPLICE- CONCEPT OF THE TERM	22-44
	(1) Who is an Accomplice
	(2) What is the liability of Accomplices
	(3) What makes a person an Accomplice
	(4) Defence to the crime of being an Accomplice
	(5) Burden of proving that a witness is an Accomplice.
	(6) Approver's Evidence
CHAPTER-III	CASES AND STAGES IN WHICH THE CONCEPT IS APPLICABLE	47-130
	(1) Meaning and Distinction in Accomplice, Accessories, Aider's, Abettors, Principals, and conspirators.
	(2) Persons in the position of Accomplice.
	(3) Person not in the position of Accomplice
	(4) Bribery cases
	(5) Whether a Prosecutrix in a rape case is an accomplice.
	(6) Do person involved in a crime for discovery and disclosure of an offence like spy, Paid Informer, Detective, Decoy, Trap -witness etc fall under the category of accomplice.
	(7) Trap witness.
	(8) Decoy witness
	(9) Partisan witness
CHAPTER-IV	LAW IN CONTEMPORARY WORLD	131-168

- (1) Law Related to Accomplice in United Kingdom.
- (2) Law related to Accomplice in India.
- (3) Law related to Accomplice in U.S. of America.
- (4) Law related to Accomplice in state of California.
- (5) Law related to Accomplice in Nigeria.
- (6) Laws related to Accomplice in India and England are identical to a great Extent.

CHAPTER-V COMPETENCE AND PRIVILEGES 169-207

- (1) Relevant - Provision regarding the competency of witness in Indian Procedural Law.
- (2) Competency of Accomplice as the Prosecution witness.
- (3) Competency of accomplice as the defence witness.
- (4) Accomplice as prosecution witness: Privileges and Immunity.

CHAPTER-VI VALUE OF ROLE AND STATEMENTS 208-278

- (1) Meaning of the word corroboration.
- (2) The Nature and Extent of Corroboration
- (3) Appreciation of corroboration of Accomplice Evidence.
 - (i) Rule as to corroborative Evidence
 - (ii) Nature of corroborative Evidence
 - (iii) Section 156 'Evidence Act'.
 - (iv) Previous statement
 - (v) Complicity of accused.
 - (vi) Statement of another accomplice.
 - (vii) Police statement of the approver.

- (viii) Retracted confession of a co-accused.
- (ix) Retracted deposition of a witness.
- (x) Several statement made without concert.
- (xi) Proof of absence of concert.
- (xii) Corroboration must be both as to the corpus delicti and as to the identity of the prisoner.
- (xiii) Accomplice do not corroborate each other.
- (xiv) Corroboration by circumstantial evidence.
- (xv) Conviction on Accomplice Evidence without corroboration.
- (xvi) Accomplice resiling from his statement before the committing Magistrate.
- (xvii) Facts held not corroborative.
- (xviii) Corroboration by finger impressions.
- (xix) Corroboration by impressions of shoes etc.

(4) Corroboration in Sexual offences

CHAPTER-VII

RULE OF CREDIBILITY AND

279-324

PRESUMPTION

1. Historical Background of credibility and presumption of Accomplice testimony.
2. Accomplice unworthy of credit.
3. Mode of weight and credibility of Accomplice Evidence.
4. Value of Evidence of accomplice.
5. Appreciation of approver's Evidence.
6. Judge's charge to Jury.
7. Necessity of Independent evidence

- should be stated.
8. Statement of a dead or absent
Accomplice.
 9. Value of Evidence of Trap witnesses

CHAPTER-VIII PARDON AND PROSECUTION 325-414

- (1) Meaning and Definition of Pardon.
- (2) Aim of Tendering Pardon.
- (3) Who can grant Pardon.
- (4) To whom pardon may be granted.
- (5) Stage at which pardon may be tendered.
- (6) Offences in respect of which pardon
may be tendered.
- (7) Conditions of Pardon.
- (8) Acceptance of Tender and its effect.
- (9) Effect of Pardon.
- (10) Examination of approver as witness.
- (11) Evidentiary value of the evidence of approver.
- (12) Constitutional validity regarding Exercise of Pardon power.
- (13) Admissibility of an Accomplice evidence without grant of Pardon.
- (14) Other ways of procuring evidence of an accomplice.

CHAPTER-IX JUDICIAL TRENDS 415-454

CHAPTER-X 455-490

CONCLUSION & SUGGESTIONS

BIBLIOGRAPHY

(i-v)

LIST OF CASES

(vi-xxix)