ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow down and pray to god of beginnings LORD GANESHA for his intellect and wisdom and also for removing all the obstacles. I bow down and pray to goddess of knowledge MAA SARASWATI for knowledge, creativity and education and also I bow down and pray to goddess of wealth and prosperity MAA LAKSHMI for bringing good luck in my life. I thank them for everything in my life.

I wish to thank Dr. K. C. Gupta, Director of Indian Institute of Toxicology Research (IITR), situated at the wonderful city of Lucknow, under the umbrella of CSIR, New Delhi for providing me all the necessary facilities and UGC RGNF, New Delhi for fellowship so that could I carry out entire Ph.D. work without any obstacle.

I am extremely thankful to my supervisor Dr. Sudarshana Chandrayan, Lecturer, Department of Biochemistry, Bundelkhand University, Jhansi. I enjoyed being taught by you immensely, you are an excellent teacher and inspired me to continue learning with an open and positive mind. It is your care that catches me when I fall and helps me get onto my feet again. I appreciate all your hard work, constant inspiration, time to time interactions, scientific encouragement and showing interest with great insight in guiding me throughout my Ph.D. program.

I would like to extend my sincere sense of gratitude to my mentor and supervisor who had greatest impact on my life Dr. Sudhir K. Goel, Professor and Head, Department of Biochemistry, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Bhopal (Ex- Senior Principal Scientist & Head, Petroleum Toxicology Division, IITR, Lucknow). He believed in me long before I believed myself. He always cheered me on and challenged me to push myself ahead. I have to sincerely thank him for his willingness and kindness to accept me as his student. Influenced deeply by his selfless sharing of knowledge and resources, I have excelled in my analytical thinking and conceptualization skills during this journey. Thanks for being a pillar of support, an epitome of strength, as loving as a mother, as strict as a father, as caring as a friend, a disciplinarian, yet always so approachable and warm at heart. I owe you a debt of gratitude for all that you have done for me.

I would like to express my sincere thanks, gratitude and humble appreciation to Dr. L. K. S. Chauhan, Petroleum Toxicology Division for his support, parental affection and for time-to-time moral boosting in depressing moments and always keeping me in the smiling state throughout my Ph.D. It is your love that keeps me going when the going gets tough. Thank you very much for your hard work and dedication. You truly go above and beyond. I am very grateful to you for extra time and energy to help me.

I extend many thanks to Dr. A. B. Pant (Scientist In Vitro) and Dr. R. C. Murty (Head Analytical Section) for their kind support, valuable help and suggestions throughout my tenure in this program.

I express my sincere thanks and my heartfelt gratitude to lovely and caring lab member of Petroleum Toxicology Division. I never forget love and parental care received from Mr. Ram Surat and Mrs Mumtaz Jahan. I am also thankful by heart to my lab seniors and lab mates Dr. Shikha Tewari, Dr. Munish Pandey, Dr Priti Sharma, Dr Vibha Pandey and Meenu Varshney they all were very supportive and always helped me in many ways to complete my thesis work. Thanks a lot to all of you making our lab like a sweet home and helping me like family member. I know how much time and energy this assignment demanded, and I deeply appreciate all of your efforts to make it a great success.

I also like to acknowledge Eco Friends (N.G.O.), Bahraich Arsenic Mitigation Project (B.A.M.P.) team and District hospital, Bahraich for their untiring support in organizing health camps and collection of samples.

Especially I would like to thank my friends in research outside the lab. Praveen Kumar (R.M.L. Hospital), Amit Verma (N.B.R.I.), Ankur Omer (C.D.R.I.), Saheb Raj Khan (C.D.R.I.) and Satya Bhanu Singh for constant and cheerful support, sharing everything from lab work to personal life. Thank you for being there for me through some of the most difficult times in my life. I will always remember and admire the time spend with you all, it will always conserve some lovely memories of my life forever.

My acknowledgement will be of less relevance without appreciating my friends from my hometown i.e. Jhansi for being genuinely happy for my success and good fortune as it’s their own. I want to thank Manish, Pradeep, Kaushik, Sonu, Piyush, Pramod, Shailendra and Virendra for being my friend always not just when it was convenient, for not letting time or distance affects our friendship. You all are so special to me that cannot be replaced. You all always helped and willing to help no matter what the situation holds. Our friendship helps me comprehend how lucky I am.

Last but not the least I would like to extend a great sense of respectful gratitude to my elder sister Kalpana and her husband Dr. S. R. Verma, younger sister Kavita and my dear loving niece Sanvika specially along with my admiring, caring, devoted and worshipful Papa (Father) Ram Sanehi Verma and Mummy (Mother) Vidya Verma, for their constant moral support, encouragement, faith, confidence and patience which helped me to achieve where I am today not only during this Ph.D. program but also from the very beginning of my entering this world. Thank you for never giving up and for still being an active, involved, dedication even when you clearly didn’t have the energy to do so. You all are worth more than real gold, you all are worth more than real diamond and you all are worth more than true love. Thank you for showing me true love in its rarest form and how it can extend beyond life’s obstacles and challenges. I could never imagine life without you because life without you is like the stars without sky. You are the most important part of my life and closest thing to my heart. Words are not enough to express how much you all mean to me. Thanks for being in my life.
