

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I submit my admiration on the graceful feet of the omnipotent, which continues to serve me the energy, inspiration, and understanding to complete this research work.

I am very grateful to my teacher and guide Dr. Raj Kumar Singh, Professor, Department of Social Work, University of Lucknow, Lucknow for his able guidance in acuminate my research aptitude and scholarship. My vast experience with such a person with critical wisdom and parental affection would help me in all walks of my entire life. I am much honored to thank him.

I also think with gratitude the encouragement and assistance given by my parents and family members.

I also convey my thanks to the departmental staff and research scholars who always make my path easier during research work.

I should think here to record my thanks to Dr. Pratibha Gupta, Community Medicine Department, ERA Medical College, Lucknow.

I am thankful to Dr. Rakesh Dwivedi & Dr. Lalita Devi for guiding me. Sanjeev Nishad, Afiya Bano for the support and constant encouragement extended throughout the investigation and for his timely suggestions during the progress of this work.

Finally, no word can express my deep gratitude to my parents and my brothers for their love and for their encouragement throughout my long period of study.

My thanks giving would be surely incomplete if I do not acknowledge the cooperation given to me by all the respondents surveyed in my study and the corporations of the Anganwadi workers selected for the study.

Vijai Sharma
Research Scholar
Department of Social Work
University of Lucknow, Lucknow