ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As a student of Doctor of Philosophy at the Department of Human Resources Development, I have got an opportunity to understand, appreciate and carry out research as a part of my course. This thesis will prove to be a boon for all my future endeavors and assignments that I shall be taking in this field. Moreover, it shall be the foundation stone for all research based activities I shall be undertaking in the future.

I wish to acknowledge the help of the following people.

I would first and foremost like to thank Dr. Kiran Pandya, Professor and Head of Department of Human Resources Development, VNSGU Surat. I am thankful to him for his encouragement.

I am greatly thankful to my research supervisor Dr. Digvijaysinh G. Thakore, who has provided very useful guidance for my research work. His technical expertise helped me a lot in making my research work analytically sound. His timely discussion on many issues cleared many of my doubts and helped a lot in correcting mistakes. The moral support which he provided is very precious for me. Without his wise words finishing this thesis was difficult. His valuable insights into this field of study helped me a lot in shaping up my research problem. His constant support and encouragement is priceless for me. He was the one who stood by me in all my trouble time and his wise words always helped me to sail through the troubled water.

I would like to thank all the Teachers participants of my study especially Rupal Desai and Anshuman Desai who spared their valuable time in their very busy day to day schedule. Without their cooperation this research work was not possible.

I thank Mr. Sharad Mehta, Former Deputy Commissioner (Finance) for granting permission to do my research. His valuable suggestions and comments were of immense importance in making my thesis concrete. I would like to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Shankarbhai Patel and Mr. Gopalbhai for providing me the necessary details for the same.

During my dissertation I have received assistance and encouragement from a large number of people who gave their time and valuable resources. I acknowledge their help with profound thanks. I would like to thank Dr. Sanjay Joshi for his valuable suggestions. I would like to thank Dr. Madhusudan Raj, Dr. Smruti Bulsari, Dr. Mehernosh Zaveri, Ms. Neha Raval and all the teaching and non teaching staff of Department of HRD, VNSGU, Surat. I would like to thank the Management of SDJ International College for supporting me throughout my thesis. I would like to thank Shri. Deepak Vaidya (Director,SDJ International College) and Ms. Aditi Bhatt (Co-coordinator, SDJ International College) for their continuous support. I would like to thank all the faculty members of SDJ international College. Surat.

I must also thank my School friends especially Pankti H. Desai and my family members for the encouragement and support provided during the study. My Father Late. Satish Desai, My Mother Pratibha Desai, My Bhabhi Dikita Desai, My Brother Pratyush Desai who stood by me during all difficulties. I would like to thank my husband Nirav Jariwala for the constant support and my beloved daughter Heer for her incredible cooperation.
