Acknowledgements

It is a matter of pleasure and privilege to acknowledge my profound gratitude to all those who helped me in completing this work. It would never have been possible for me to write this thesis without the help and support of some generous people and fully equipped institutes around me. Though, due to the brevity of my acknowledgment, all the names cannot be mentioned here, yet I am grateful to all who lent their helping hands to me.

First and foremost, I would like to express my gratitude and respect to my mentor Dr. Manish Sharma under whose guidance this research work has been accomplished. He has always been a source of encouragement and support for me in several ways. I also pay thanks to Prof. Manohar Lal Sharma and Dr. Ashu Pasricha present chair and all the faculty members of the Dept. of Gandhian and Peace Studies for their whole hearted encouragement.

I express a deep sense of gratitude to my father Mr. Mohan Lal Patyar and my mother Mrs. Ram Kali. Along with them, I am sincerely grateful to my siblings Dr. Poonam Patyar Dr. Rakesh Raman Patyar, and Dr. Sazal Patyar. Without their assistance, this work would have been a distant dream for me.

In connection with the present research, I visited a number of libraries and would like to express my gratitude to them. I gratefully acknowledge the cooperation received from the staff of the AC Joshi library and the Dept. of Gandhian and Peace Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

I also wish to express gratitude to my dear friend Manraj for his unconditional affection and support. Besides, I would also like to send my special thanks to my dear friends Dr. Gagan and Vipan Kumar for their vast knowledge, positive feedback and untiring patience towards me. I lack words to appreciate the efforts of all those persons who spared time from their busy schedules to give me valuable feedback and opinions. And I am indebted to all my well-wishers who granted me an overwhelming support and cooperation during the course of the present study. Above all, I am grateful to the Almighty for being with me at every moment.

MANSAVI PATYAR