Violence against Aged women in Slums is a social harm that directly affects a number of aged women aged in many ways, impacts nearly all aged women. Incidents of violence against aged women have been on a rising scale in the present time in India and in other countries as well. Agra as a megacity is at the front of violent on aged women.

The study has adopted an exploratory and descriptive research design.

The present research study entitled Violence against Aged Women in Slums of Agra: A Sociological Study is divided into 7 chapters.

Chapter One covers the introduction of the topic, the background of Agra, review of literature, objectives of the study and the research methodology. The study has adopted an exploratory and descriptive research design. The study has been conducted in Agra, since the universe of the study was quite large therefore random sampling method had been adopted. 5% (21) slums colonies have been selected purposively.

Chapter Two emphasizes on the theoretical and conceptual framework of Violence against women.

Chapter Three describes the first objective of the research study to know the socio-economic Background of aged women who are victim of violence in slums of Agra, because the study of violence against aged women in slums cannot be completed without knowing the socio-economic status of aged women of sums who are suffering from violence and perpetrator as it plays an import role to understand various factors behind violence. It emphasizes on the socio-economic background from which they belong education level, age, living conditions, of the aged women in slums and perpetrator which influence of violence, economic status, caste, religion, family types, Chapter Four is The Causes of Violence Faced by the Aged Women in Slums of Agra, This chapter focus on the relationship between aged women and their family members and relatives. Thus the present study has been conducted to know the causes behind violence and how social infrastructure affects violence inn Agra. Why relatives/ family members do violence on an aged... woman? What is the mentality of them? What is the perspective and perception about the incident and about the aged women?

Chapter Fifth is the Nature and Degree of Violence against Aged Women in Slums of Agra. This chapter unravels all the nature and degree of violence against aged women in slums by the perpetrator.

Chapter Six is Policies for Awareness of Aged Women about Government Policy for Welfare of Aged. This chapter unravels all the policies and Yojna which are introduced for the protection of violence against women and aged women.

Chapter Seven is Suggests Measures to improving the Conditions of Aged Women in Slums. The sum of the outcome of the study along with some suggestions and scope for further studies which would be helpful to at least mitigate the violence against aged women if not eradicate it fully. The study concludes by emphasizing the fact that the incident of violence are increasing rapidly. Hence, proper care should be taken by the family, relatives, medical staffs, police personnel and the other legal authorities and to do all the possible measures to which can be of any help for the victim to reduce their pain and sufferings and which can be helpful in restoring their normal condition. As it would be worth living if we can at least mitigate this violence if we cannot fully eradicate it.