

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to thank my research guide Dr. B. M. Khan for his exceptional guidance, unfailing support & motivation and for his extraordinary kindness and consideration throughout my doctoral studies. He has been a research guide, a mentor, a well-meaning critic, a tough task-master and a kind teacher, all rolled into one amazing person. I consider myself rather fortunate that I got the opportunity to work under him. The experience and learning that I take form here is enormous and will stay with me throughout my life.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. S.K. Rawal, former Head, Plant Tissue Culture Division, for his support and invaluable comments and suggestions.

I wish to thank Dr. D. C. Agrawal and Mrs. M. V. Shirgurkar for allowing me to use Gel Documentation, Particle gun and Microscopy facilities.

I appreciate the kind and timely help extended by the scientific and supporting staff of the Plant Tissue Culture Division and NCL library.

Special thanks are due to Dr. Nooka Raju and Rajeshri for their extensive help in plant transformations. Their efforts have been critical in taking my work towards completion.

The remarkable help and assistance extended by Prashant and Gayatri is highly appreciated. I am thankful to the Director, NCL for giving me the opportunity to work in this reputed laboratory.

I would like to thank my seniors Lata Mahishi, RC, Rohini, Manish, Sushim, Noor, Sameer, Arun and my lab mates Abhilash, Sumita, Santosh J, Santosh RJ, Prashant, Rishi, Somesh, Kannan, Sameena, Nishi, Ruby, Anagha for their timely help and for making work fun. Thanks to Poonam S, Poonam L, Swapna, Varsha, Sridevi, Ambrish, Bhuban, Sagar, Neha, Sucheta, Neelima, Malini, Ulfat, Jai, Azfar, Shweta, Shashidhar, Chetan, Suryaprasad, Priya, Shreekanth, Kiran and Trupti for maintaining a lively and cordial atmosphere in the lab.

The fellowship support given by CSIR is duly acknowledged.

I would like to thank my parents and brother for their unwavering support throughout my life.

The words are not enough to thank my in-laws for their extraordinary support in every sense, especially during the crucial last phase of my work.

Finally, words would not suffice to express my gratitude towards my husband Vikram for his support throughout this endeavor and in every aspect of my life.
