ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my great fortune to express profound gratitude to my esteemed teacher Dr. V.P. Mital, M.D., Professor & Head, Department of Pathology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi, under whose inspiring guidance, I had an opportunity to work. He has been a constant source of encouragement and the present study carries at every stage the imprint of his dynamic personality, wise and concrete suggestions and mature and seasoned criticism.

I shall ever remain grateful to Dr. D.C. Govil, M.D., Reader, Department of Skin & V.D., M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi for his perfect guidance and untiring help even at his personal inconvenience. His timely suggestions and critical approach during entire course of study helped me in completing the work.

My words fail to express gratitude to Dr. R.K. Gupta, M.D., MNAMS, Reader, Department of Pathology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi who was always ready to help me in the study. His profound knowledge and healthy criticism shall always inspire me in future life.

I am thankful to Dr. Ratna, M.D., Lecturer, Department of Pathology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi for constant encouragement and help.
I am thankful to Dr. V.K. Sharma, M.D., D.C.P., Lecturer, Department of Pathology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi for his time to time and much solicited help.

I am very much thankful to Prof. V.K. Kulshrestha, Professor & Head of Pharmacology who is my brother and Dr. S.P. Singh, M.D., Lecturer in Pharmacology and Dr. Rajesh Gupta, M.D. (Pharma) who helped me in various ways.

I extend my loving and affectionate thanks to all my friends for their co-operation and help whenever it was required.

My special thanks to Mr. Kanhaiya Lal for excellent typing of thesis within a short time.
