This thesis is the culmination of my journey of (PhD) which was just like climbing a high (mountain and reaching its summit) step by step accompanied with encouragement, hardship, trust, and frustration. When I found myself at top experiencing the feeling of fulfillment, I realized though only my name appears on the cover of this thesis, a great many people including my family members, well-wishers, my friends and colleagues have contributed to accomplish this mammoth task.

I am grateful to the Vice Chancellor, Prof Raj Kumar and former Vice Chancellor Prof. Arun K Grover, Panjab University, Chandigarh, India for giving me an opportunity to work in this premier university and providing with all the necessary facilities throughout my work and my stay in this university.

I acknowledge the Department of Science and Technology (DST-UT), Chandigarh, India and University Grant Commission (UGC), Government of India for providing me with the necessary funding and fellowship during my Ph.D.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. S.K. Soni, Chairperson and Prof. Praveen Rishi, Prof. Vijay Prabha, former Chairpersons of the Department of Microbiology, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me with all the necessary facilities to pursue research.

I greatly appreciate and acknowledge the support received from my supervisor Dr. Naveen Gupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Microbiology, Panjab University, Chandigarh for introducing me to this exciting field of science and for his dedicated help, advice, inspiration, encouragement and continuous support throughout my Ph.D. His enthusiasm, integral view on research and his mission for providing high-quality work, has made a deep impression on me. During our course of interaction during the last five and half years, I have learnt extensively from him, including raising new possibilities, approaching a problem with systematic thinking, data-driven decision making and exploiting serendipity. I owe him lots of gratitude for having me shown this way of research. I am really glad to be associated with a person like Dr. Naveen Gupta in my life Thank You sir....

My special gratitude to my co-supervisor, Professor Prince Sharma, Department of Microbiology, Panjab University, Chandigarh for the continuous support in my PhD study and related research, for his patience, motivation, and immense knowledge. His guidance helped me throughout the time of research. I feel privileged to be associated with a person like him.

My special thanks to many people of the Department of Microbiology, Panjab University, Chandigarh, who have assisted me in the course of this work. My heartfelt thanks to all the faculty members of the Department of Microbiology, for making the facilities available during the research work.

This thesis would not have come to a successful completion, without the help I received from the non teaching (technical) and office staff of the Department of Microbiology.

I extend my sincere word of thanks to Mr. Vijay, Mr. Aditya, Mr. Abhishek and Mr. Digvijay for always listening me out, offering me advice and supporting me extensively throughout this whole journey.
