ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Any work or effort is a product of encouragement, motivation, inspiration and supervision, I feel extreme pleasure to attribute my sincere appreciation to all, who provided me the same for completing my Ph. D. degree.

There is an imperceptible force which shapes things in the right way and direction i.e. God. I thank the Almighty for providing me opportunity, skill, capacity and strength for completing my research work.

Words are too feeble to express my sincere feelings of gratitude for my supervisor Dr. Surinder Singh, Principal, Guru Nanak College, Killianwali, Sri Muktsar Sahib (Punjab). With his competent guidance, constructive criticism, cheerful and inspirational encouragement; I was able to complete this work. I really owe and acknowledge my indebtedness for his untiring pains for my research work.

I extend my gratitude to Professor Latika Sharma, Chairperson, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for providing me facilities for my research work in the department.

A special thanks to Dr. N. R. Sharma, Principal, Saheed Uadam Singh Panjab University Constituent College, Guru Har Sahay, Fazilika (Punjab) who really paved the way for me to do this degree. His support and help contributed to initiate this task.

I acknowledge the expert advice provided by Dr. Kulwinder Singh, Professor (Retd.), Department of Community Services and Education, Punjabi University, Patiala; from very beginning of my research work. He always stood beside me whenever I required his valuable advice.
I owe my gratitude to Dr. V. K. Rai, Principal, Modern College of Education, Bir Kalan, (Sunam) who supported me with his unconditional help in construction of scale and data analysis. He always spared his valuable time from busy schedule to guide me in complex data analysis.

I acknowledge the contribution of my dear friend Ramandeep Kaur in this work. Her encouragement, support and sincere motivation worked as a great force to compile this work.

I would like to thank all the principals and teachers of secondary schools for cooperating me while collecting data. The credit of completion of this research work goes in part of those participants who honestly and willingly gave their response to the scales administered to them.

I am forever indebted to my mother and brothers, who sacrificed all their comforts for me and wanted me to fulfil all their dreams through me. With deepest love I acknowledge the care and attention of my kids- Harsh Mittal and Aarsh Mittal for understanding, encouraging and always being with me throughout the journey in spite of being ignored sometimes.

A word of thanks to all those gentle people who associated with this work directly and indirectly whose name, I have been unable to mention here but they are like countless stars in numerous galaxies.

Lastly, I would like to thank Mr. Gurbaj Singh for formatting and binding works.
