

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I find it really difficult to summarize my experience in few words for the past five years of my PhD tenure. First of all I am thankful to almighty god for all the blessings. He has bestowed upon me and it's under His grace that we live, learn and flourish. It's the blessings of my well-wishers down the earth which helped me to fulfill the present task.

To begin with I express my sincere gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. Rana Zaidi for her continuing help and being always present for discussions, scientific or academic. I am very grateful to her for providing me with every possible opportunity & freedom to learn and explore my scientific ideas. Her help started from the day one and has never stopped. I am deeply indebted to her for suggestions, constant inspiration and encouragement.

I am deeply obliged to my co-supervisor, Dr. Samudrala Gourinath for giving me an opportunity to work under his esteemed guidance which helped me to improve upon my lacunae during the Ph.D. tenure. I am deeply indebted to him for his suggestions, constant inspiration and encouragement that helped me during entire research period as well as at the time of thesis writing.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the previous Head, Department of Biochemistry, Jamia Hamdard, Prof. Shakir Ali and present Head Dr. Rana Zaidi for providing all the necessary facilities in the Department.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the former dean Prof. Neera Bhalla Sarin, Prof. R. Madhubala, Prof. R.K Kale and present Dean Prof. B.N. Mallick SLS, JNU for providing me CIF and library facilities.

My special thanks to Prof. Alok Bhattacharya, SLS, J.N.U., for providing genomic DNA of Entamoeba histolytica and clone of Nt-EhCaBP1.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Neelima alam for her kind support and help and motivation. I specially thank to Dr. Saima Aslam from SLS, JNU for performing Cell- colocalization and pull down assay experiments. I am also thankful to my lab mate Mohit Mazumder who made the Protein-peptide complex model.

I thank to Ms. Anu Advanced Instrumentation Research Facility J.NU. New Delhi (A.I.R.F.) for helping me in SPR experiment.

I also thankful to the director A.I.R.F. for allowing me the use the X-ray source for data collection

I would like to express my deepest gratitude and thanks to all the staff members of CIF SLS.

I am also thankful to previous staff Mr. Aslam and present staff Mr. Moh. Iqbal and Mr. Shujat of the Department of Biochemistry, Jamia Hamdard, for their kind help and support.

I am immensely thankful to Dr. Shivesh Kumar who has helped me a lot during my initial days of research. I got an introduction to the Ca<sup>2+</sup> binding proteins from him who was also working on the same family of proteins when I joined the lab. He always ready to provide valuable suggestion and personal guidance during the experiments.

I specially thank to Dr. Manish Kumar who always ready to help me for the crystallization work whenever required.

I am thankful to all my lab members Dr. Isha Raj, Dr. Sudhir Kumar, Dr. Syed Arif Abdur Rehman, Nitesh Kumar, Mohit Mazumder, Faisal, Gokula, Aruna, Rohit, Preeti, Gunjan, Sudhakar, Sunneta for creating an inspiring and pleasant working atmosphere in the lab. Special thanks to Dr. Isha and Dr. Sudhir and for their indispensable help and scientific discussion whenever I needed.

I am also thankful to Nitesh and Rohit for their crucial help and who are always ready lend a helping hand and I specially acknowledge to Rohit for helping me in preparation of figures.

I am thankful to Post Doc Fellows of our lab Dr. Rajesh Pujari and Dr. Tamanna Anwar for their help and support.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Aruna and Nitesh for devoting their precious time to extending their help in proof-reading and providing valuable suggestions during my thesis writing.

I would like to thank my Jamia Hamdard lab member Iram Rais and Pinki Rani Rawat for their help and support.

I thanks to Mr. Ved and Sharma Ji for laboratory assistant.

I was really blessed to have cheerful friends and roommates as Deepak and Nitesh during my PhD with whom I used to share my each and every success and toughest moments of research. I specially thank to Deepak and Nitesh for their every help, support and suggestion which they gave during my toughest time and they always ready to stand for me.

I gratefully acknowledge Council of Scientific and advanced research (C.S.I.R) for financial support during the course of my PhD.

At last but certainly not least, I doubt the ability of words to translate my feelings to thank my family members whose unconditional support, love and motivation provided me to pursue my interest and achieve my present goal. I am debtfull to my elder brothers Mr. Shailendra, Mr.

Sanjay and Sunil who took all the major responsibility of my home and never allow me to feel the burden of responsibility. God has been really kind to me for providing such a nice family who provided me the every comfort of life & demanded nothing in return.
