ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In preparing this dissertation entitled “The Individual Self and The Supreme Self as viewed by The Bhagavad-Gita and Sri Aurobindo” I must express my feeling of gratitude to my teacher and guide Dr. Sukhamoy Ghosh, Ex-Reader, in-charge. Deptt. of Philosophy, Tripura University, who has been a constant inspiration for me in this work. This venture could not have been completed without his untiring supervision, valuable suggestions and constant encouragement. I also express my feeling of gratitude to my teachers Dr. Sushit kr. Sarkar. Professor, Deptt. of Philosophy, Tripura University, Dr. Krishna Bhattacharjee, Reader and HOD, Deptt. of Philosophy, Tripura University, Dr. Sitanath Dey, Professor. Deptt. of Sanskrit and Dr. Arup Jyoti Sharma, Assistant Professor Deptt. of Philosophy, Tripura University.

In the way to completion of this work I also received immense co-operation from Dr. Umashankar Roy, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Political Science, M.M.B. College Agartala. Dr. Sucharita Chowdhuri, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Philosophy, B.B.M. College, Agartala, Mrs. Chandana Bhowmik, Lecturer, Deptt. of English, Holy Cross College and many of my relatives, friends and colleagues. I am grateful to all of them.

And last but not the least, my mother’s wishes and my heavenly father’s blessings have been the source of spirit for me but for which this work perhaps could not be completed.
