"I have believed and repeated times without number that India is to be found not in its few cities but in its seven lakh villages. But we town dwellers have believed that India is to be found in its towns and villages were created to minister to our needs. We have hardly ever paused to enquire if those poor folk get sufficient to eat and clothe themselves with and whether they have a roof to shelter themselves from sun and rain."

- Mahatma Gandhi