ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All glory and honour belongs to the Almighty, the source of all knowledge and inspiration. This research work has been made possible only by him and through him, in the form of fellow beings of the same creation.

There are several people I wish to acknowledge. Some inspired the start, some made the journey meaningful while the others continue to inspire.

At Family
I’d like to dedicate this effort to my Father - Mohammed Nazeer and Mother - Ayesha Begum, who inspired and nurtured this initiative from the very beginning. It would not have been possible to reach this point in space and time without their influence and continued trust in me.

I thank my sister Hajira Begum and brother Imran Pasha Nazeer, for being an excellent ecosystem and by taking the time and trouble to be there reaffirming a common value system and strength during difficult times.

At University Department of Management
I’d like to thank:

- Dr. K. Janardhanam, Professor & Director – Canara Bank School of Management Studies (CBSMS), for being the torch bearers of this great university department of management and touching peoples’ lives in the true spirit of being human. I am grateful to him for his continued belief in the greatness of our values and striving to stand out from the crowd and support us in every step of our learning.

I’d like to thank him wholeheartedly as he continues to add meaning and value to the higher education and provide appropriate directions to research scholars through his wide experience and wisdom which helped me make my research life at CBSMS Interesting and with purpose.
- Dr. Ritika Sinha, Research Supervisor and Assistant Professor – CBSMS, for being more than a guide and refining this effort every step of the way. She demonstrates empowerment and collaboration by example continuously. She enriched and brought meaning to structured learning through her experience, effort and allowing me to participate in the learning process. She exemplified the dignity and honour associated with sharing knowledge for the development of an evolved society through her own life, examples and wisdom gained from thousands of interactions with learners like myself. I don’t have words to express how grateful I am for you to be my supervisor and allowing me to be myself and participate in the learning process. You demonstrated your commitment to continuous learning and that made all the difference Mam. My sincere thanks to you.

- I’d like to thank the Board of Studies, Board of Examination and Members of the Faculty, for their affirmation in the scope of this research and providing all encouragement and support to make this research a reality.

- My Fellow Scholars of the batch of 2012-13: Manjunath and Srinivas who made this research such a fun learning experience with the collective sharing, a million laughs and memorable seminars, conferences and interactions.

- Office Staff: Shivarudraiah, Manjula, Kalpana, Nagaraj (PhD Section), Praveen Manju, Chikkanna and Prakash for your timely support and helping in our research lives so meaningfully.

- The Library and Canteen Staff of Bangalore University – Central College Campus.

All of you made my decision to make this research a worthwhile.

You will be remembered……!!!
