

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of the ALLAH the most beneficent and merciful, all thanks and praise to Him for what has been bestowed upon me. Modern life has few spare moments and I am extremely indebted and wish to thank all the people who have spent their time in contributing knowledgeably and professionally to accomplish my work.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my guide Dr.T.M.Pramod Kumar, Prof., Dept of Pharmaceutics, for suggesting the topic of this study and for providing excellent working facilities. I am most grateful for his scientific guidance as well as for his constant enthusiasm and encouragement, all of which made the completion of this study possible.

I sincerely thank Dr. H.G.Shivakumar, Principal, JSS College of Pharmacy, Mysore for providing necessary infrastructure and moral support.

I thank most sincerely the internal expert and external expert of this thesis, Dr.H.G.Shivakumar and Dr. R. Narayana Charyulu, for their constructive criticism and for giving me valuable suggestions for its improvement. I am also grateful to Mrs. Namitha Shivanna, Librarian for help and consideration during literature search and revising the language of the manuscript.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Professor Dr.P.K.Kulkarni, Head of Department of Pharmaceutics and Professor Dr.D.V.Gowda, for their valuable suggestions that helped to complete my dissertation work.

I am grateful to all my Ph.D friends who helped me in every way and for sharing my moments of success and despair. I particularly wish to thank Nawaz Mohammed for his great company and friendship during all the years of research. My heartfelt thanks to all my dearest juniors who have helped me throughout my dissertation work.

I am thankful to the teaching, non-teaching staff and M.K.Manjunatha Hegde of Mail-world for help in completing the thesis.

Finally, I owe my warmest thanks to my beloved parents for their everlasting support and teachings to reach for the highest goal. I especially thank my loving Brothers Mohamed Faizulla and Mohamed Arifulla, for being my friend and companion. Special thanks are extended to my ever loving friend Dr. Sunil. H. Patil for motivating and supporting me throughout my hardships. All this work would have been impossible without their support, help and love.
