At the very outset, I sincerely acknowledge the inspiration, encouragement and contribution of my supervisor Dr Awadhesh Kumar Mishra who has been so kind in guiding me in every stage of this work. I was lucky enough to secure Dr Mishra's able guidance for my PhD dissertation. But for his keen interest in my work and kind disposition towards me, my work would not have seen the light of the day.

I am equally grateful to my co-supervisor Dr Bishwanath Prasad, Reader and Head, Department of Hindi, Assam University for providing all kinds of help during the research work. My indebtedness to Dr Prasad is beyond measure and words shall always fall short to acknowledge the same in right fervour and spirit.

I also acknowledge the suggestions given by my ex-colleague Dr Upal Sen to improve the work.

I am also thankful to Professor Tapodhir Bhattacharjee, Dean, School of Languages, Assam University for providing every support.

I am equally thankful to all my teachers of Deccan College, Pune for teaching me the art of linguistics.

My parents Dr Prabin Baishya and Hemalata Baishya, and brothers Kamal Lochan Baishya and Kishore Kumar Baishya helped and encouraged me morally to continue and complete my work, and all have my deepest gratitude.

I am also grateful to all informants for their active cooperation in collecting the data.

I also appreciate the efforts of Pinak who has taken great care in typing the manuscript especially the phonetic symbols.

I gratefully acknowledge the cooperation and assistance provided by Deccan College Library, Pune, Gauhati University Library and Assam University Library.

Finally, my gratitude to my wife Nitu goes beyond anything I am able to express. Without her patience, understanding and support over a long period, the writing of this dissertation would have been an impossible task.

While my debts, both general and specific are many in a venture of this sort, I accept the sole responsibility for any error that might have inadvertently crept into the work.

Once again, I would like to say

'apuňa: upore bisi mon khuši hoise' or
'apuňa:kha:nke bisi donya:ba:d a:se' ¹

Ajit Kumar Baishya

¹ Thank you all very much